Ah, I'm not following anyone at the moment. Public models, right, not people you know?
Which of them do you think are the best at it?

Had to look that character up. Is that from League of Legends? That looks hard as fugg to pull off.

<https://instagram.com/aru.rinh>

<https://www.instagram.com/hi.na3103> (she went private for whatever reason)

Stop holding out on me!

Wow, she really did go private, with 28k followers? Well, I guess she can see who's a bot and who's not.

Thankfully I followed her before she put it on private! She has super cute cosplays, you're missing out! Maybe she'll accept if you request to follow.

Please PM, Convo, MAL me. Whatever it takes ?

Just requested haha. We'll see.

Same, meggicosplay is my favorite cosplay girl... she reminds me of a real life anime girl... idk... i like it... alot. lol

As for cosplaying myself, nah but it's something I've thought about. If I were to do it, my first cosplay would be Ichigo from Bleach. I think I could pull that one off really well.

Awesome. Luckily, I managed to find a great replica of his jacket on Amazon.

Final fantasy cosplay has always been a favorite. The classics of gaming.

Yes, Yuffie Kisaragi. Looks like a beginner-friendly cosplay to pull off as well.

I cosplayed a decent bit back in 2015-2017. Celty from DRRR, Haruko from FLCL, and Uta from TG. I also wanted to do Izaya from DRRR, started working on his coat but just wasn't satisfied with the materials I had and never saw it through.

Impressive. You create the costumes from scratch? You're just like that one character from Genshiken, hm.

Not everything but most of it. I didn't make Celty's jumpsuit cus I had 0 confidence working with leather. I do wish I made it myself though, I feel like I would have been a lot pickier with how it turned out and it would have been higher quality. Her helmet was a lot of fun to make though! Uta's outfit was also super simple to make since it's just a modified t-shirt and black harem pants with some acrylic paint + a cardigan. His mask (no face) was surprisingly easy too. Haruko was also really easy on my end since a friend made the coat and gloves for me so I only had to modify the boots which were super easy.

Ah, Durarara, Tokyo Ghoul, and FLCL, right? Are you still making more?

Nope, not anymore. Life just kinda got in the way and I stopped. I've always wanted to get back into it but as I get older, it becomes harder to find the time or energy for it.

That's a shame. I understand what you mean though, especially the time during covid; more things worth prioritizing.
