Thread: LoremIpsum \(uid: 4362613\) selling free/public methods

Perileos - May 20, 2021, 8:57 am

LoremIpsum sells a method for the cheapest RuneScape membership, however this is a public method.

Original thread here:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6153216&pid=60748990#pid60748990>

Backup:

<https://i.imgur.com/6cqfpRk.png>

Now his method in question is easy, you buy from a cheap supplier to resell HOWEVER this method has even been shared on HF:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6102996&highlight=tribogames>

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6153735&highlight=tribogames>

Or check these url's:

https://www.tribogames.com.br/en/runescape-membership-runecoins-c-130_193.html

<https://loja.levelupgames.com.br/runescape/compre-cash>

Now you might wonder, how do I know it's 100% accurate? The price list in Lorem's thread directly links up with the prices on the tribogames website, which is in Brazilian Reais and then translated to USD.

(At the time of creating this thread I was unaware of others lowlifes selling this method too, so here yall go:)

Lol, I made an inquiry about this the other day on his thread mentioning the same site, wondering if this was the public Brazilian webshop method. I was right. The post got removed; I should've done this instead.

Great fun to see all my fans, working together on this quality thread. Great job!

Let me reply to each and one of you, for the first and last time.

Perileos Are you mad because your Bragging Threads aren't giving you any clients? Zielige vent. All methods are public, as all knowledge is public... try to comprehend that, big shot.

Lynx And another Dutch fan, I hope you suck d*ck better than Nachfolger does? 17 years old and already acting like a big man. We'll talk soon.

[mention=2774521] All methods are public, as all knowledge is public. I know it's hard to understand for that sad little brain of yours, but remember... $1000 = enough to get unbanned! Even more pathetic than Perileos.

Exalted "I will not remove my post" ... I know, Staff did that for you.

Perileos "D*ck suck" ... You will s*ck enough dick when you're ass in finally in Jail.. or my hands..

I hope for you, without threats or harassing intentions, that authority finds you faster than I found Lynx.

grainy Another quality gambling member... Thank you for the quality input.

Forensic Thanks haha I love your ass!

Let me explain, before some other members starts to claim false facts again..

Public methods are the only thing being sold on HF. Literally any ebook is based on knowledge that I can Google or find at resource websites. Perileos is just jealous that his Bragging Threads and pretentious attitude isn't as well selling as he hoped it to be.

Also, I see here 4 Dutch members who all dislike me for speaking the truth.

Thank you all for the entertaining. I hope you sad little kids can comprehend that literally every single 'method' or 'ebook' that is being sold on HF or any other place, is nothing more but experience combined with free and public knowledge, tied together in the form of a list, a text file or even a beautifully designed PDF.

(May 20, 2021 09:26 AM)Davkul Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Since when scamming is against the rules on HF ?

Define "public" method for me?

As literally all methods, trainings, ebooks and tutorials can be found on the internet. Kids these days ? Ciao!

Bankrupt you are the new Owner of (former Masterminds) now; Hustlers.

You vouched at my thread. Could you explain Perileos how business is done online?

He seems to be confused about the limitless possibilities of gaining knowledge on the internet.

I replied a second before your post.

This (this post) is my final reply. I'm not wasting my Thursday evening on 4 fellow Dutch guys who are all jealous and who, coincidentally, are all in my Ignore List.

Funny kids..

Is that "personally identifiable information/doxing" I see?

Hoping a minor sucks better dick than someone else?

And on top of that, "We'll talk soon.", is that a threat?

I'll tell you this; You won't even get close to talking to me "soon" in real life if you thought you somehow could. Trust me. ?

I dont know how this loser selling public methods, who legit begged me to try and force me into giving him a +1 brating because he was in a rush. Imagine begging for a brating at end of the day.
Shows what type of person he is.
If your service is good you dont need to beg for brating.

It's never over for me i dont understand how begging for a positive brating is even allowed on this site?

*Understand BRATING is a marketplace for contracts and deal if it was done good if you where happy feedback etc. NOT FOR SOMETHING TO BE BEGGED FOR AFTER SAYING NO.
BRATING + Popularity = big difference.

alot of hostility and non-directly written threats on this thread, everyone needs to calm down, and realise you're all arguing over an ebook..

the way i see it;

If you've taken hours to compile public knowledge into a fancy looking PDF and you've actually written it out YOURSELF (not just copy and pasted from threads or google), explaining each part fully, hows, whens, whys, whats needed.... etc, then I don't see why it can't be sold for profit, since you've taken that time to make a meaningful tool for someone to learn from.

edit: this post isn't aimed at anyone, I haven't got this particular ebook, I don't know the contents, its aimed at all ebooks.

Wrapping shit into a shiny wrapping paper doesn't make it worth $10?

So, you completely agree with the negative feedback you're receiving? You can't make the argument 'because this guy is doing a shitty thing, I can do shitty things too'.

I can understand that selling a great method is a nice idea, but you shouldn't be surprised to get negative feedback when the method can be easily found for free.
