Haha for real.

I can feel a golden one coming my way eventually. Not sure if every time I get a blue egg if I should re-use this thread or make a new one, I'd image a new thread would get more attention but I hate re-creating threads.

Do we even know the odds?

I forget who it was but a regular member had a golden egg from a post that had like 5 words. That's crazy.

I am not sure the odds bro but I am pretty sure that it was given randomly to any member, maybe we should just wait for our time and luck :)
