Feel good is big scammer who often post comment in all type of thread and offer to contact on other platform like telegram. He was always try to be emotionally attach with you and when you get personally with him then their original behavior is come in front of someone. He always try to scam and first offer that he will take money after work but during work procedure he will ask you to pay payment. He scammed me $1000 and I know this guy is not alone as he is one of such scammer group. I request all the members to not come in contact and attached with him personally and I have proof of scamming done by him. I have also doubt that this person use many id to scam someone. He also ask to use middleman when he have fear of deal cancellation and try to attached personally and when you attach then he will ask for money. If you have no trust on me then i suggest you all to go with middleman only.
