Thread: Welcome to Echo

Second thread this month about Echo? Echo was a wild group and a wild time of Hackforums, while we loved the chaos of it one of the first conversations I had with Omni was if he missed those times. Obviously this was a stupid question, no admin wants to deal with toxicity and at that time was about when Vinnie was drawing a lot of bad rep to HF. But it was fun, I was young, and had a lot of great friends those days.

So while our current crew is representing echo, here's to those days, nothing on the internet will ever be like it and boy do I miss those years.

Understalker has a new account like weekly, he's like me.
