just started ewhoring today but I got low adds from [BRAND NAME REMOVED] am using a method I purchased over here but not getting any adds via [BRAND NAME REMOVED] what does that means? I did try first with kik and got 0 adds today I started to put my snap and still..... I also don't know how to filter out time wasters everyone is like "hey love" "what are you doing" etc... I want to straight say that am selling but idk I feel it would turn them back. Any help would be truly appreciated.

Hey bro, sorry for the late reply wasn't around. I've never used [BRAND NAME REMOVED] personally so I can't really give you an answer about it. About the timewaster thing... There are a lot of timewasters, there are the type that let you know directly know that they're a timewaster by asking for a preview directly, the ones who want multiple previews, the ones who send you a dick pic directly, the ones who are the nicest people in the world and "very interested" until they dissapear all of a sudden after you send a picture with very high hopes that they'll buy (these are the ones who fuck your brain up) etc... To be honest you might have clues who is a timewaster or not when they hit you up but you never know. I've had ppl hit me up and I was thinking they're timewasting 100% but they actually bought so this means that you never know who's gonna buy and who's not. About the straight telling them that you're selling I do that very often with people who I think won't buy but when you see a profile of a guy who's not young and they talk nicely and they seem interested these are the people you should be nice to and tell them that you're selling but not directly in the beginning, chat with them until you make them think that you're real and very kind and then when they ask for a picture tell them that you actually sell. Also, do not give up. E-whoring is definitely worth it and it will never go away.

I haven't dealt with free packs in years bro, I say buy a $40 pack and you'll get that money back double or triple in a day.

Not really I've never done it, sorry can't help.

Xoid - June 12, 2021, 11:24 pm

Are there any free guides you recommend?

Seems like onlyfans requires ID

[BRAND NAME REMOVED] instant banned me (not sure why I've never ewhored before)

Even if you get traffic, I'm not sure the best way to cashout? I mean crypto would be great but, I can't imagine many of these guys are sending crypto right?

I don't recommend any free guide or ebook that's here on HF. I also don't use [BRAND NAME REMOVED] or OnlyFans even though I suggest OnlyFans if you have a real girl. For payment I take PayPal cause it is the easiest way for me.

Not really, you need to have the ability to understand what's going on which seems like you don't but it's fine with me you'll learn one day.

if they ask for a sample, block them. no normal human non time waster says "sample"
