Thread: Discord voice suggestion

I think it would be nice if there was a second voice channel added where everyone could join it, regulars, leets, uber
And keep the current one for upgraded only.

Having a couple different channels for different groups to voice chat in would probably be a decent idea.

But thats why keep the current one which is only for upgraded people and a second where everyone can join, i dont see how that would be bad.

Better suggestion: Add voicechat to the HF Convo and throw away the HF discord.

I like this suggestion, voice chat in the HF convo would be neat to have, along with a mute button

I have gotten in a handful of times.

Go have your conversation elsewhere. This needs to be branch cited, stay OT.

Not interested in pushing more Discord usage. HF needs the activity.

We've looked into adding voicechat to Convo. We might still do it. If we do, then we'd get rid of the Discord voice channel.
