Thread: I Walked through the Ghetto and got beat up \(Gross pictures \)

TM111 - June 11, 2021, 8:12 am

I got attacked via Three huge men -

I come off the train at 1am and suddenly fell onto the floor... knocked out cold for 2 minutes.

So basically I have Left & Right parasymphysis fracture in 6 places. The worse thing is not being able to eat meat! Bluddy liquid diet for 8 weeks which sucks.

I'm still alive and lucky not to be stabbed ... or lucky the blood clot didn't go to the brain... I'm a lover not a hater but 3vs1... isn't right...

I guess one good thing is that titanium doesn't go off when walking past a metal detector and a bonus... I'm party robot now! xD

My pain is so bad... never felt anything like this before.

Warning pictures are GROSS

Can't really see the details... just proof I'm not lying.

#Mosside - Manchester.

bk randy - June 11, 2021, 10:55 am

That's fucked up though man, it happens a lot where I'm from in Saint Louis, two of my cousins have been jumped almost to death -snip- and some more shit.

But yeah man gotta be more aware of your surroundings and keep some steel on you.

Drizzled - June 11, 2021, 10:58 am

Oh well victim support rang me today and said I could get up to £10,000 and I don't even need to tell the police the peoples mane (I don't know them anyway) compensation claim for me GREAT---- Bluddy cowards.

What is wrong with people these days... so sorry to hear this happened glad you're ok. They will get what's coming fuck em

A + - June 11, 2021, 3:14 pm

You've got to be careful going out at night these days. Especially around 1 am is almost asking for trouble in some areas.

[$(5)$] - June 11, 2021, 3:46 pm

This is not in the slightest bit ok. I'm glad you're alive... not that nothing worse happened to you.

ON another note, sick contacts.

Crypt - June 11, 2021, 3:48 pm

Were they caught on any cameras? Have to watch your surroundings and not sure where you live but I carry a gun. There is a law called being out manned, which in short means I would've shot all three of them and got away with it. Sounds like you live in some shit ran Democrat city though where you can't do anything about things like this.

I'm actually very lucky to be alive! but I'm coping thank you.

No, it's not okay at all... the worse thing is the hospital only found 1 fracture, went dentist 1 week later she did nothing she said I was fine (I was in so much pain) then went to the emergency dentist and she rushed me to the hospital because it caused a blood clot and she found 6 fractures, not 1!

People were saying I was being a pussy with the pain... dam I've never felt so much pain ever. Right now I'm on morphine and antibiotics they are so strong ... I feel high but I'm still in a lot of pain.

Yep we're not allowed guns here (in the UK) unless you're a farmer (shotgun) but they are possible to get a sawn-off shotgun in Liverpool... but I'd probably use it so best not get one of them. You can own a gun for a firing range that's all you'd probably be shot dead in Manchester carrying a shotgun! It must be under lock and key (in a safe bolted to the floor) Also if I fight back I'd get sent to prison 100%

I didn't call the police on them... but it was in the middle of the town a shop called "Spar" phoned the police and I saw a police dog chance after him an armed response officer came with a tazer, I saw the dog bite his leg.

Not just if I should press charges or not, because victim support told me even if they don't get arrested I'm eligible to get up to £10,000 which is good because that will pay for my teeth!

I'm not a snitch/grass but imagine if they did this to an old lady, woman, or a child? I'm not sure what to do I have a crime reference number so it's down to the cps now (CROWN PROSECUTION SERVICE)

They did GBH that's like 9+ years in prison (in the UK anything under 10 years you get to serve the other half outside on parole/probation

I feel so good people who don't even know me are caring for me! so much respect for you all!

Just the type of people that deserves to rot in hell. It seems that they enjoy putting themselves in a position where others are helpless against them, because if they were after money then they would have just robbed you and not do more physical harm than necessary. Pure evil.

If I was in charge of their sentence, I would put these kind of people in a life time tickle torture.

Tickle torture:

Spoiler (Click to View)A variation of this in the Roman camps involved dipping the victim's feet in salt solution and then have a goat lick the bottom of the feet. This would start out as normal tickling but then the pain that followed would be extreme.

Edit: I realized this is not nice to our goats :/ so any torture will do. Kill em' slowly.

They do! an eye for an eye In my opinion, or they need to learn their lesson 100% Yep I was pretty much helpless, 3 huge black men again me pshh... no chance.

Even if I tried to fight back they ran away but it was in Mnahcteser city centre, cameras everywhere AI ones too so 100% they're known.

Lifetime in prison here is IPP snd EDP IPP is a 99 year + sentence until they say you can "

You could just mince them up and feed them to pigs (they don't eat teeth or toenails) or a barrel of acid.

That would make me as bad as them though right!

It isn't even close to the land of freedom but atleast you can protect yourself here and have a choice to not be a victim.

Realistically, not many would be able to take on 3 people this is why guns are useful and why a right to protect yourself by firearms exists.

Sadly it's being stripped away slowly but surely.

Are you saying firearms are going to be banned eventually? Biden doesn't like them right? I'd imagine they would be riots... HUGE RIOTS. It's dumb isn't it... three men hit you and if you fight them back you're in trouble.

Biden is just a tool.

The united states government no longer cares about the citizens.

3 against one is not in any means fair, I remember the first time I got jumped by 5 guys. One dude stole my girls bike at the time.

Went to look for him at one of the places he hangs at confronted him while he was chilling with his friends knocked him out in 4 punches after i pulled him to the side to talk with him then I got hit 2 or 3 times from the back, got put in a choke hold, hit a few more times then slammed and stomped and kneed. Too bad they were weak pussies I only ended up with a laceration now just around the corner of my eye from a boot or getting sissy punched, a lot of bruising on my limbs and chest and stomach. Had to limp home throwing up every few minuets because the temporary pain in my stomach was brutal so I feel ya and how you feel maybe not the pain but the hate for pussies and their gangs.

Does it matter directly that it was black people who jumped him? no however with everything going on today and the fact that everyone wants to blame the white man why not call it like it is, if it was white people who jumped a black man they would be plastering it all over the media white man bad.

Black on black and black on white crime is rampant and it needs to be called out like it is. And this is all happening in major part because of the main stream media.

Like a black guy or Asian guy would say they were jumped by a white guy.
