Thread: Poll: Do you play GTA in 1st or 3rd person mode?

guardian - June 13, 2021, 2:02 pm

I recently started playing GTA V again and was wondering: Do you guys play it in 1st or 3rd person mode? If you switch, which one do you use more?

Personally, I use 3rd person 99% of the time, as I have been playing GTA since GTA III, so I am just used to it. But when I walk into the casino I turn on 1st person, because you can walk faster in first person mode there for whatever reason. ^^

The game is definitely meant for third person but I do enjoy messing around in first person here and there

I love running and sniping in first-person. Driving in first-person sucks for me but shooting in first is satisfying.

Third person always, dont like first person, especially deathmatch in first person

Had no idea you could play GTA on first person mode :O

I've always just left it in 3rd-person.

But that's how the game should be played mate ?

1st person just feels wrong to me

sc0rch - June 27, 2021, 7:15 pm

1st person is nice for certain kinds of PvP/PvE if you're into that, but overall i'd say 3rd person has more of a natural feel for a gta game

BUBBACOW - June 29, 2021, 2:36 pm

Man first person was made for when you're going 100+ on a motorcycle lol

Third person and when I want to look at something closer I go first person.

OxygenSwipes - July 4, 2021, 10:59 am playing in first person feels jarring and counter intuitive plus the fov is big bad

Eden - July 11, 2021, 1:31 pm

I personally like 3rd Person because I like to see my Character and the Back of my Car when Driving, I find it easier to play like that...

Although I just bought GTA V and I have played it before but never in 1st Person View... It's probably very realistic, I might try it out.

If you use first person mode I suggest you get a therapist

GamerGuy2211 - October 4, 2021, 1:32 pm

3rd person but it's fun going into 1st person once in a while clean - October 4, 2021, 1:35 pm

I play GTA 5 in 3rd person, I have a hell of a time playing in 1st person on that game. Many other games i'll play 1st person!

The game is actually designed for the third person and you miss all the fun if you don't have decent headphones especially when playing with Trevor.

Beherit - October 4, 2021, 2:05 pm

I love my FPS's so I try to play the game like that, but there's a lot of driving in this game and I can't deal with the spinning in the car if you crash and just get motion sickness from most of my first-person ventures. Sometimes I switch to first-person when I have my gun out ready to snipe though.

3rd person all the way, you miss too much stuff going on in 1st person.

I switch on and off but mostly play third person. GTA 5 VR would be sick as fuck imo.

lol - October 5, 2021, 9:42 pm

3rd person 90% of the time lol

grainy - October 6, 2021, 9:38 am

Played in first person for about an hour when the game just came out. Imo just a gimmick.

Eran - October 6, 2021, 9:50 am

3rd person, if I recall correctly I only played 1st person for like 5 minutes before I switched back lol

Lol for real man. 1st person isn't as fun, you don't get the views!
