Thread: Euros to be added to sports book?

Shrooms - June 17, 2021, 3:40 pm

Unsure if this has been suggested, sorry if it has but since it's the biggest sporting event going on in Europe right now can we get it added to the sports book?

It hasn't yet been suggested but going out on a limb here and saying if the Sportsbook API doesn't offer betting on the matches, it'd be impractical to implement for a one time event.

Well it's an event but it's a large amount of football games so I'd say it would be worth getting. I'm unsure how hard it would be to implement but I know a lot of users would like to see it

We use an API to fetch sport/odds data. If that API doesn't have the event then we can't add it.

It already started and I don't see the point in adding it now. If an event is upcoming that's best time to contact us. Soccer is weird in the API. We have to add specific leagues.

Okay fair enough, I'll remember for future events
