I've been here coming up on 10 years. The rep reset was tough, I worked hard for that haha. The new B-Rating system is a lot better though, it was well needed. HF has changed man but stick around. There's still some pretty cool cats here.

LGx Hackz zZ - June 19, 2021, 3:59 pm

Forsure seems less active then it used to be tho

Nothing like getting hit by a good ol' repfuck back in the day. Like you said though, splitting rep into B-Rating and Popularity is definitely an improvement.

You really think asking for an award on a random thread is going to make Omni want to give you anything?

You've been around long enough to know how counter intuitive that is.

You're for sure a veteran here. That's nice :)

PokeBong - June 20, 2021, 5:57 am

Glad to see everyone getting their comments in on how long they've been here. Some of you guys deserve partial ownership haha.

I am OLD, back today, never let the mind state go. The dark is seriously scary.

Wicked man nice to see other people that have stuck around for more than a decade, I'm not far off it now.

Still lurking in the shadows.

LogiTech - June 20, 2021, 7:34 am

Since 2013 but I had a period of inactivity and came back to a closed account. May or may not pay to have it restored idk especially since it has no reputation after the reset.

Drizzled - June 20, 2021, 7:58 am

Imagine being here for 10 years.... can't relate.

Grammar Rays - July 6, 2021, 2:35 pm

Hello fellow 2010er! ?

I think I was here earlier than 2010 and my account got merged but it's that long ago, my memory has gone bad.

Psilocybinaut - July 8, 2021, 2:03 pm

You have been here ten years! Congratulations! Now, just wait another ten (20). Then another ten (30). Then another (40). Then, another group of ten ones (50). Then, you will die of lung cancer and will no longer be one of the older members on this forum.
