Thread: Lorem Ipsum is Back | 30 Day Ban | Announcement!

Lorem Ipsum - June 21, 2021, 11:13 am

Hello you all,

I'll be fair but straight forward with you all. I got banned, for 30 days, with the note that if I repeat my behaviour my account will be closed. Not temporarily..

I will not reply to members who provoke me, or quote those who create threads or posts about me or my content.

My 30 Days of Non-HF.. How did it went?

Pretty good. I did a lot of stuff offline and enjoyed the sunny weather which we had this month.

I did some thinking and that's the main reason of this thread and the big announcement I'd like to make.

Sincere Apologies!

I want to apologise to @-Scrub@ and @Nero@ and @Pikachu@ for misbehaving while representing their Group, colours or just as being part of their group as a (temp) member. Further, I want apologise to the members in particularly who I projected my negativity at.

Announcement!

I will be posting less, replying less and doing less on HF. No more negativity fuelled by my replies. Why? because I think being provoked isn't giving me back the $1000+ that I put in this account, nor my time.

I will still work for the HackGame award, but I will no longer post anything seriously related to my revenues, income streams or other projects that I do.

My post activity will decrease, because I think HF should become (with my new less caring attitude) a better place for me to network at, instead of me replying to the few who like to provoke others to prove a point or for fun.

Business

I'm still open for business, I just do not want to create any new content, threads or uploads for AFB or Contracts.

Money will be made, but less time spent in the spotlight.

Thank you all for the love, and I hope you guys understand I wrote this with love, self-protection and such.

Hey mate, most of my accounts understand the feel.

Lynx - June 21, 2021, 11:31 am

Oh god. Here we go again.

You -5'd me before, remember?

Removing that and re-giving that is not going to change anything other than making you look stupid;

Move on man. Just like me :)

Forums don't have to be dramatic and toxic. Don't know why you guys gravitate towards that behavior, but glad to see maybe OP won't going forward. Hope a lot of you can take a page out of his book and grow the fuck up and stop acting like your status here implies anything about your character.

Thank you! I was banned for threatening members (provocative kids and internet gangsters).
This is the Quote of Eagle95 (Admin);

I will no longer risk my $1k+ account for that bullsh*t.

No, we will not. You are obsessed with me, I don't want stalkers or haters around me. Ever.
I came back today and you already try to provoke me, with a petty thread about me being unbanned.

That's all I have to say. Feel free to reply or not. I do not care, nor reply.

Thanks.

My thread was not of cynical nature, I don't understand as to why you believe it was laced with cynicism. Mind want to elaborate on that?
