Sorry will edit it now someone recommended me here that's ignorant of me to post without reading rules.

To share your discord you must verify it is yours, read Help Docs. Good luck with sales!

I doubt any legit HF member will recommend a new member to put his unverified Discord in the thread.

Anyways, good luck with sales. I don't make nor enforce the HF rules.

No problem. My honest feeling about you is probably you being a multi.

Why? Signing up, posting Discord (off-site communication in general) and then upgrading to L33T immediately.

No offence, I respect your attitude and your enthusiasm. I just want to explain why I think the way I do.

Take care and if you need anything, hit me up in Conversation (PM possible from 25+ posts).

Could you provide us a list of places where they'd work?

Or a summarized list if anything?

Does a .edu account allow free services from Spotify, Amazon Prime, and Google Drive?

Or is it just a discount?

Those are the 3 I'm primarily interested in.

The spotify one is 50% off and shotty sometime with sheerid but the others are free and hassle free

google drive - free unlimited drive up to 4 years amazon prime - 6 months free than 50% off rest of your time using prime.

As for Google Drive; does this include unlimited storage for Google Photos as well, sort of how Google One works?

As for Amazon Prime; does this include Amazon Prime Video? And if so, any specific channels?
