Thread: Can you stomach this job?

x_x - June 23, 2021, 3:51 am

If you got offered a job as a drone operator to blow up enemies of your country, do you think you could handle it and how much pay would you want?

bending - June 23, 2021, 4:01 am

Why not, and for that particular job I think 50k$/year sounds about right.

Regulus - June 23, 2021, 4:03 am

Yes, gimme a drone and lets get to work.

First one I'd blow up is Stefan Löfven as a thank you for ruining our country.

wow - June 23, 2021, 4:26 am

The operators probably don't see all the destruction and death after they have left, it's probably easier for some people.

Lorem Ipsum - June 23, 2021, 4:30 am

Stomach? Yes.

Brains? No.

I'm not dumb enough to kill other human beings that are labeled as my "enemy" for simply having Oil, for simply not agreeing with the NWO, or for their "freedom" as often is used in War.

Define enemies, and I'll do it with pleasure.

Pedophiles, child traffickers, politicians, etc., are worse of an enemy for us as a Human than people in Iraq, Africa, China or Germany ever were.

Ultras - June 23, 2021, 4:44 am

If someone was invading my country each and every one of the soldiers participating would deserve it, so yes I could handle it and it would be my pleasure. If it's one of our "humanitarian" wars, hell no.

This is a good reply, thank you for commenting on the actual problem with the job :)

Yanix - June 23, 2021, 5:13 am

If you will be paid pretty well then go for it :D

Beherit - June 23, 2021, 5:42 am

There was a VR chat about a guy who talked about doing something like this.

Keep in mind you would be spending weeks/months watching these people, documenting everything they do. You'd have no problem watching these people blow up probably killing innocent people as well as taking a father's life away?

x_x - June 23, 2021, 8:45 am

But you wouldn't know that for sure, you are just being told that by your boss. It's not like you know for a fact they did anything terrible.

wiz - June 23, 2021, 9:24 am

The problem with this are the innocent lives that get lost as part of the process. So my answer would be: no.

neightworks. - June 23, 2021, 9:31 am

There's a good vr chat interview with a penguin about this job.

Nate - June 23, 2021, 12:05 pm

Yeah i'll send some hellfire missiles down on them lil shifts

Wouldn't even have to think about it as there already dehumanized by being pixels on a screen.

What is the actual problem with the job, once your a soldier your expected to fullfill orders. There enemies..

rather risk the lives of young soliders, or being able to safely neutralized a target without getting your own hurt.

(Jun 23, 2021 09:24 AM)wiz Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) The problem with this are the innocent lives that get lost as part of the process. So my answer would be: no.

causalities of war. The enemy obviously doesn't care about their own people if they have there strongholds next to hositpals, or on purposely use schools to hold there operations.

Then blame us for killing civi's. when they are the ones who did it in the first place by setting up in highly populated areas.

Honestly I wouldn't, I don't want to have deaths on my consciousness. The people hiring you to do this kind of job don't give a shit about your mental well being, you are just a tool for them. I'd rather do an honest job, even though it might pay less idc. I like to have my peace of mind when I go to sleep.

Good answer, it would probably weigh on a lot of people here but they are "too cool" to admit it.

Some people deserve death and you can't deny the fact that some people truly deserve it. Stop being a pussy about it and accept the fact that some aren't worth the same oxygen we breath.

AiDenti - June 23, 2021, 5:18 pm

I'm strongly against any kind of military action, so probably not. With that said, I'd do it for a much higher price than others would. I can justify that price because I'm not a sociopath who would seek out and get enjoyment out of murdering people, so I'd be more stable than most of their applicants.

I don't think I could handle it because of my mentality. Money doesn't play a role here, I just couldn't live a normal life later with the knowledge that I contributed to the death of people, no matter if they were good or bad.

Well said, especially after you watch them for hundreds of hours.

The problem is just like the internet, you're remote so you have power in anonymity. So a lot of you are willing to kill from a drone but i bet if that woman and child were right in front of you. With her covering her baby with her body. Would you be able to fire two direct headshots?

They would be in front of you, drones have cameras that you would use to monitor these people. I think people get the idea it will make them seem cool if they say it wouldn't bother them.

They are not in front of you. If I downloads a program on my pc right not to kill someone with a drone that a lot easier to do vs killing someone in front of you, pulling the trigger feeling the backfire, feeling the burn in your hands from the gun powder, seeing the muzzle flash, hearing the shot and it hitting the person. Complete different experience.
