Thread: Do you think the government killed McAfee?

AiDenti - June 23, 2021, 5:45 pm

He was found dead in a Spanish prison and apparently 'killed himself'. But look at this tweet he sent in 2019:

What do you think? Did he get suicided?

Drizzled - June 23, 2021, 5:52 pm

It's definitely sketchy but I thought he just did tax evasion?

Why would they want him dead lmao?

I don't know much about his antivirus but I heard it caused a lot more problems than it solved.
Things like essentially working as a trojan.

McAfee most definitely did not kill himself.

Doomslayer - June 23, 2021, 6:30 pm

I feel like McAfee hated the government enough to tweet this and then kill himself.

I'm more inclined to think this as well. Not to say it's a certainty, but John has always come across more as the flat earth uncle rather than the man who's going to expose something like MK Ultra.
Dude's bat shit.

This was my initial thought. He's always been kind of a troll.

McAfee doesn't look like someone who would Suicide not sure about this, but read somewhere that he was busted for way more (i.e. heavy weapons possession).

i dont think he killed himself, he is rich AF he would have the best cell in the US, and the best lawyers.

John McAfee didn't kill himself and neither should you!

This is a good point. If he went to trial he'd get off easy. Not much reason to kill yourself if you've got a safety net made of money.

Sorry, I don't believe in celebrity deaths.

Omniscient - June 24, 2021, 11:31 am

Was murdered. He would have sat in a jail cell the rest of life and been okay with it. He would have considered it a new adventure. The guy was amazing imho. He was killed because he had a big mouth and they didn't want to see him open it in a court. The government doesn't like to look bad.

I think he was killed. He just seems like the type of guy who would have sat it out in a cell instead of killing himself. Either the government/someone was afraid of what he could say/expose so they murdered him. I just don't see him being the loud mouth type of guy he normally was to go and kill himself instead of sitting it out in a cell. I think he would of taken his time in there and figured out how to make the best of it instead of killing himself.

Just my thoughts on the situation

It's like survivor except instead of being voted off you get resurrected.

And if you get beheaded, your head gets saved in a jar like in Futurama, and they put you on a new body.

He's almost as weird as that temple OS guy.

blackrose_x0x0 - June 24, 2021, 12:00 pm

My initial reaction to the news of his death was that he was murdered, I just don't think he would have committed suicided. Everything about it seems a bit sketchy. I'm going to miss his crazy tweets on twitter that's for sure.

??? - June 24, 2021, 2:00 pm

It's definitely possible, why not sure though? Would need to know what type of stuff he was dealing with.
