They really epsteined McAfee too. Absurd.

LoGiurato - June 24, 2021, 3:57 am

He just said that to make em look bad. Dude was about to get extradited to the USA and face like 30 years in prison. I'd kill myself too if I was on his place.

x_x - June 24, 2021, 3:58 am

Epstein didn't kill himself and neither should you! call suicide hotline now.

Well there is also an Ethereum wallet that activated after he died and started sending random addresses. Also if you claim suicide shouldn't the jail have you on suicide watch? Or like Epstein where there was no camera footage for that hour or the guards forgot to check up on him?

All this sounds so ridiculous.

618C - June 24, 2021, 4:18 am nah he did not kill himself, just like Epstein..

both of these guys had unlimited funds, you really think they would go to jail for 30 years LOL. they hire the best lawyers in the world, make some agreement with the government (aka Bail) for loads of moneys.

If he would have gone to jail it would be the most luxury jail in the US with blackjack and hookers.

he was just like Epstein one of the elites in world orders, but i guess we will never find out the real truth.

A Nobody - June 24, 2021, 6:13 am

There's definitely some suspicious stuff going on there.

STGZ - June 24, 2021, 6:35 am

Why was he in jail? I believe this is fake news and he isn't dead.

I wondered this, what did he do to end up in a Spanish prison originally? Guy lived a crazy life

He was living in Spain until the U.S officials forced the spanish to imprison him.

He had an arrest warrant in the states and got arrested in Spain, yesterday the Spanish court decided to extradite him to the states and he committed not alive.

Cammy - June 24, 2021, 8:49 am

Rip McAfee rip Einstein

Deemed too dangerous to be left alive....

I think you've got some misconceptions of how even the luxury are handled in prison. Bail doesn't stop a sentencing, Fed prison is much better but definitely no blackjack and hookers. Maybe with good enough behavior places with phones and computers.

A + - June 24, 2021, 9:08 am

I wonder if they're going to start putting cameras in cells to prevent accusations from happening.

Nope budget wouldn't allow it, plus officers beat inmates all the time would be caught on camera

now. Prison is a lot different than real life, stabbing and stuff when found out only carry like a 30day sentence to the hole. So things don't weight the same way they do out here, so i doubt they'd care to prevent suicide

This will never happen, especially in the US. Way too many prisons, cells, and corrupt guards to deal with.

Omniscient - June 24, 2021, 9:39 am

I was a big fan of his. He was sort of my idol.

I don't believe he killed himself at all. And it's sad they couldn't even get creative and maybe do the fake heart attack thing.

I read this news last night before going to bed. It's a blow. McAfee was my hero. The guy lived life like a free spirit. He was imho the Hemingway of our generation. The numero uno IDGAF guy.

May he rest in peace and his soul live on. And wherever he is I hope he's got a mountain of cocaine and guns. Go with God my brother.

(I am seriously shedding tears about this)

Neon™ - June 24, 2021, 10:29 am

When I heard the news yesterday I felt so bad damn... I remember back in 2017/2018 when he used to shill random coins on Twitter, I photoshoped a pic of him and he retweeted it lol. What a crazy life this guy had! Shouldn't have ended like this.

Let's hope his deadman switch was real.

Tesseract.mk - June 24, 2021, 1:58 pm

McAfee has always fucked with people, I think him killing himself was a final troll to make us think it was the government (which is still a possibility). Put in his position, 75 years old, stuck in a shit hole before potentially getting sent back to America to spend the rest of my life in a jail cell, I'd probably kill myself too. He had his fun, it was checkmate for him I guess.

Rest in peace <3

Nah he just shouldn't have gone without a fight.

Aeowulf - June 24, 2021, 3:13 pm

What if Spain agreed to the extradition to get the US off their backs and then "let" McAfee remove himself?

Crypt - June 24, 2021, 6:50 pm

Commenting to read this later. I don't know the whole story.

Bald - June 25, 2021, 7:51 am

He predicted he would be killed and claimed suicide

Rod Wave - June 25, 2021, 9:15 pm

i also don't think he killed himself. i think he would've got extradited and died in prison if that's what it was, rip legend.

Bankrupt - June 26, 2021, 1:46 am

RIP. Guy was ahead of his time and had some SERIOUS stories to tell. Not that surprised he was suicided, living where he lived with the money he had (when he was in bali) he probably had visits from the same acquaintances Epstein had. The same people who figured they needed to clean up any loose ends, if that is the case.

Repeat - June 26, 2021, 2:01 am

It's so tragic all of it and it really just show how fugged the deep state is.

venchu - June 27, 2021, 12:30 pm

He already make it obvious on his tatto but the world gonna move on sadddd

Zher0 - June 27, 2021, 3:26 pm

Not sure what to believe at this point, but his tweets are interesting for sure. Too bad we will never actually know the truth, unless it was leaked.

Never saw that tweet of his. Wow.. corruption

Kavalli † - June 28, 2021, 3:30 pm

I heard he had a condo in the building that collapsed in flawrida which stored a lot of his secret files.

Not sure how much truth to it but would be insane if true.

Considering that the fact checking alliance is debunking it, I wouldn't be surprised if it's true. But then again I find it hard to believe he would not protect it better, have multiple copies or even release at least some of it long ago, so collapsing a building to get rid of his files seems illogical.

tacticalcatboy - June 28, 2021, 5:12 pm

Idk what part of this is true, but didn't the Clintons use his software on their servers?

soupninja99 - June 28, 2021, 6:20 pm

Nice guy that McAfee man... saved me from a few bad sites

Boil - June 28, 2021, 6:22 pm

Well, he got epsteined. No doubt about that.

luv. - June 28, 2021, 6:23 pm

The food is good. All is well.

He was being extradited to the U.S. so the tweet means absolutely nothing. He took the coward's way out as they say.

"holy shit the code in the Q picture" smh. This is classic apophenia; some people are unable to accept that completely unpredictable events like suicide or a pandemic ACTUALLY DO "just happen", and so, the human mind, being absolutely phenomenal at finding patterns, begins to look and form patterns based on things that are flimsy at best (e.g. a wallet named "EPSTEIN" that has been doing transactions with a token called "WHACKD", which, isn't that just another shitcoin? And by the way, where in the hell does it say that the wallet is named EPSTEIN? Seriously, do you even know? I literally went to the same link screenshotted in that image and for the life of me could not find anything that even translated into EPSTEIN. Please enlighten me if this "i cracked the code" tweet has gone over my head, because I can't figure out why the hell this is supposed to mean anything at all.) and ends up uncovering "patterns" that are completely fabricated by the human brain's excellent ability to recognize patterns, even when there aren't any actual patterns, like with that tweet.

Conspiracy theorist brains seem to be able to go into the negative IQs. They have the ability come up with shit that is so fucking stupid it wouldn't be able to be done by a regular dumb person.
