Thread: STAFF ABUSE PT2 - KAWAII \(1406453\)

Balko - June 25, 2021, 11:08 am

Kawhi replied to the previous thread with a lame excuse and immediately closed the thread to continue the damage control.

What he FAILED to explain was the following:

1. Why did you close Loved 1 hour after you removed his posts and warned him? His posting privileges were suspended so HOW COULD HE SALES TRASH MORE LOL? You ONLY banned him after he negative repoed you twice and you deleted it. Clearly an abuse of Mod power. So you warned him and banned his posting privileges but your excuse is he was gonna sales trash more? Someone is trying to cover up their tracks.

2. You never explained you why deleted Loved's rep 3x. I never knew moderators were exempt from receiving an opinion based reputation. Could you please clearly explain why you deleted his rep each time? Are you exempt from having negative popularity?

Please reply to BOTH of these questions before quickly trying to close this thread Kawaii. What you did to Loved was not right and you know it.

You banned his posting privileges first, so he can't possibly sales trash anymore. Then an hour later you banned him because he negative repped you repeatedly (which you deleted every time). So how does the ban relate to him sales trashing more if you already REVOKED HIS POSTING PERMISSIONS. Something doesn't add up here.

Also Loved tells me you classified sales trashing as him asking for GIF earnings proof and request to use middleman. Big yikes.

Unfortunately this moderator has exposed himself in my previous thread. He claims he was trying to control the sales trashing damage so he banned him.

FALSE. You already removed his posting privileges for a month already so couldn't post already LOL. You only banned him an hour later because he negative repped you and you deleted it. Yikes. Care to explain yourself instead of just insta locking the thread again? ? [warn]

Sales trashing is classified as any post which could deter other people from purchasing the advertised product. I do not make these rules, I merely enforce them. Even if I do not like or agree with the product being sold, I am bound by those rules to remove posts considered sales trashing.

With regards to your other comments, I'll simply say that going out of your way to harass staff for simply doing their job will make your time on HF far more difficult only for yourself - and I say this as by far the most lenient staff member on the current roster.
