What is your biggest dream/desire in life?

I want to achieve any goal I put in front of myself, and really understand how to make an advantage out of anything.

For me I want to be more stable in life and provide all the needs for my family.

To be financially secure and have enough to spend on my hobbies

Endless supply of money to supply me and my homies with vacations and toys.

To be able to work from home and be financially stable. I don't want the stress of having to worry about money.

Being able to see my daughter wake up and during the day (normally miss this as I'm out the house before she's awake)

I just wanna learn and experience as much of what life has to offer.

I also wanna fuck. A lot.

To be as close to free as I can, don't have to worry about funds. The ability to travel and just live.
