FATE Official Recruitment Thread

Nuntius

We often wander through life, Directionless and without purpose, Holding onto the strings that Fate has woven. Like a dog on a leash fate holds a controlling grasp on our lives, Pushing and tugging in all directions like restless thoughts in your mind... But not you, You do not follow this predetermined path, The long dead mans walk like a death row inmate, No. You decided. You made the decision to break free of the threads that hold you to social norms, You broke free of the lacerating threads of fate, You chose. You chose and you are now here. Your Free.

You are Fate. Yet you are not controlled by it.

Verbo Nostro

Fate exists as a community driven group, We don't bitch or rage if someone says something we don't agree with. There is no god complex here. Indifference of opinion is accepted and debates are completely fine. We offer what other groups offer, But we also aim to be better. This isn't a money making scheme or a buy in group, You can contribute towards events but its always optional. This group is yours as much as it is mine, Because without a community no group would ever prosper.

How to join Be Selected by one of the Community Leaders.

Apply quoting how you have helped the Community

* Have a history of considerate posting without substantial flaming or trolling (Lounge threads excluded)

If you do not meet the above criteria you cannot join as a full member, However you can request to become a 1 month probationary member. You will have to contribute to one of the community events (Literally like $5) and be recommended and vouched for by 3 other members and 1 trusted member not inside the group. Once you have satisfied this criteria you will be made a full member.

TOS

Realistically, Because it's a free group i don't really need a TOS section, That being said though, I reserve the right to remove any member should they fall short of what is expected in Fate.

SIM-3749878 - July 1, 2021, 5:36 pm

Hi, I wish to join your group. However, I used to shitpost back in the days (like 5 weeks ago). Can I pay $5 and prove my worthiness?

This is a group the community has needed for quite a while now, and I'm thrilled to see it finally take form and especially to be a part of it; I suppose you could say it was Fate that it would eventually happen. ?

iNviZ - July 1, 2021, 6:06 pm

Nero, good form bro. See this is some actual good group movement mentality. This tab used to be full of ideas and groups that are strong. I back you 100% on this.

and intend to host monthly Upgrade contests. Have one right now stickied in the Lounge:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6160581>

Helped make a couple of awards for the site.

Countless other things I could mention but I just came back from a year away, and things since 2011.

Would be cool to join, if not, best of luck running it and congrats to those who get in.

QL'ing the posts that happen in this thread. Congrats on the group.

Can I join? Contribution: I help answer (sensible) questions in the Hacking subforum and post a few stuff at the White Hat subforum. I'm very active in the Pentesting and Forensics section. I also have the Bronze Tutorial badge for my tutorial series.

Outside of that, I've made gif avatars for people :D

Cheers!

EDIT: Also I have a Protector Badge :D

I would love to be a part of something I've seen get built, as for contributing to the community, I'm constantly reporting LQ posts to the admins, doing free Graphic Work every now and then plus I'd drop a few QLs if I see a post worthy enough for it.

Even if I don't get chosen, i wish you all the best into running this server.

Hi, i have a substantial history of trolling and flaming on this forum but I would like to apply to be an exception and still be invited.

SIM-3205632 - July 2, 2021, 5:11 am

Hey I would love to join your group as I am a strong believer of faith.

I don't really make controversial or troll-like posts I am just very BASED when it comes to people trying to blame their insecurities or faults on someone/something else. I haven't done any real giveaways besides the byte giveaway to welcome my friend to the forums which can be found here.

Bytes to everyone who gives my friend some green apples.

Other than that I am a very straight forward person and if someone needs any help I am willing to put my time into making sure they don't make the same mistake again even if I don't benefit from it.

Edit: Nach said its too long so, TL;DR: Let me join pls.

Krle - July 2, 2021, 5:34 am

I help the community by answering on some questions. I don't like trolling or flaming so I never did that thing. I didn't do any giveaway yet. Hey! I've been around for quite some time and have been quite helpful in any group I have been in. I tend to try and stay neutral as possible in any discussion on the forums.

As for contributions, I created a list of crews with links and recruitment info (currently 2 weeks out of date, oops) <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6094149> I have also provided quite a great deal of help and support in the groups I've been apart of and provided help and advice to those on computers where needed :)

I've also helped by hosting a couple of giveaways over the last few years.

Thank you for considering me! <3

Hi to my friends.

This seems like a great group, backed by some great people, and it's a honor to be able to apply :~)

I have been around HF for many years, and my contributions definitely vary. A lot of my more notable contributions were from years back, when I was 'active' like I am back to being in the past year, however that shouldn't deter from my ability or willingness to help today. I've been able to contribute to the community with both services and physical goods, as well as just being an all around good guy that has humility, and is able to keep a conversation going/be down to earth.

I love talking to people about their problems or if someone wants to vent to me I'm always open for that. I will be doing a giveaway soon as I am purchasing bytes and saving up. Most of the contributions I have done have been through QL on some people's posts and making sure to be a good and high-quality user during my time on HF. If accepted to the group I will definitely contribute more through giveaways, but right now I love helping people talk about their problems and giving my opinion on the problem. I feel that if someone gives you a different perspective of your problem it can be solved easily. Thank you!

Tyr - July 5, 2021, 6:50 pm

Quote:Apply quoting how you have helped the Community

I believe that I have helped contribute to HF in various ways over the years. Most specifically I have made notable contributions pertaining to penetration testing, security, and coding sections. I strive to ensure that the majority of my posts are of the highest quality. I put a reasonable amount of effort into trying to help newer members and have hosted byte giveaway's in the past with the intentions of helping the community thrive. I've replied to numerous threads within the White Hat and Security section with the intentions to educate other user's whom are either currently working or in college whom are specializing within IT security as well as other programmers.

I feel as though I have welcomed new members with open arms over the years and I actively try to educate others about stuff I have personally learned over the years through my work and scholarly sources. I also simply just would like to share my knowledge with others and it would be nice to belong to an active group full of like-minded individual's such as this one.

I like to contribute to the Hackforums community and beyond by remaining loyal and participating in any way I can. On hackforums i contribute most by helping new members out with questions on the forums and in convo & by spreading love and apples whilst engaging in conversation.

I do have some history of heated discussion (excluding lounge) mostly in SRPP if this is something you could look past it's something I could disengage in in the future if I was a member your group.

I well rep our block and do what needs to be done at all hours of the day to make sure our community is good.

In addition to that, I posted detailed replies to threads of people facing problems with mainly hacking/cyber security related topics.

I don't think I have ever been involved in any trolling or flaming, so I would say I meet that criteria as well.

Thanks in advance for reviewing my application and I hope to be a member of Fate soon.

NERO pretty sad to see that Cooligan kicked me out of FATE, for something I said in all respect in the Discord chat the other day. If he's an alcoholic, he should work on himself. If he's not an alcoholic, he shouldn't be a b*tch about me saying he "likes to drink", as I "like to smoke". As the topic was alcohol.

Nachfolger checked this for me with [mention=2774521] but I am not sure what they heard from him.

Read the Discord chat, if possible (the first time Cooligan quoted me) and see how he tries to put me down in an offensive way for nothing more than saying "he likes to drink".

Also, since when does it appear to be normal for a Group to kick a member for something he said on Discord? I was no dick to any HF member, until mister Coolie decided to act all big. He should either work on his addiction or don't feel offended if there is no addicted. Either way, lost all respect for the "cool" guy.

Only posting this so you can see, and read, how your "leaders" are behaving and bullying those who just join the Conversation by saying something he is apparently triggered for.

You know what Staff told me, which could be a nice tip for Cooligan his addiction-triggered-attitude? "IGNORE IGNORE IGNORE....." Something staff told me to do after being harassed, too. And here we are, I say the guy likes to drink and I'm being kicked for it (because it is a lie, even though he literally said it in a post).

While Scrubby claims I am being kicked, while I literally left. Double Standards.

Is this the welcome to FATE that you want members to feel?

Or do you like to censor all content that might trigger members, I mean, leader... NERO I still respect you. Just done with the petty attitude of some members with a large e-penis who can't even stand to hear their own words in a Discord chat without kicking anybody. Sad.

Fate operates a 3 vote system, This requires 3 leaders to give the OK for you to be kicked, I wasn't aware of the situation until 5 minutes ago but here is the alleged proof and what the staff said.

Since you getting kicked was passed via a vote it will stand.

Since you getting kicked was passed via a vote it will stand.

Why are you flaming the group thread? Fate doesn't do drama. You got voted out for your behaviour, You've represented the group in a seriously bad way, Before i officially launched Fate i had to put you on my ignore list because of the stuff you was posting, You apologised and admitted you was being childish etc and promised not to do it again, Twice i have given you a chance mate. There won't be a third.

Whatever bro. I indeed apologised for my behaviour for Threatening Lynx (after he + Perileos sales-trashed my pages and provoked me over and over again). I will not break my freaking balls or principles for some noobs who think they can kick me for telling "he (Cooligan) likes to drink".

Regardless of how many ego-issued and short-temperated Alcoholics you have as leaders (Cooligan < No disrespect. But if you freak out at me, talk down to me + kick me for literally saying "he likes to drink", you are a solid Alcoholic) I worry about your quality group.

I like to smoke weed and that's all. Many members know this. I even proudly represented a STONERS-GROUP.

And here we are... being bullied and talked down to by Cooligan for telling another member in a casual chat "he likes to drink". F*ck that whole attitude. He should work on his addictions. I will still respect you as the owner of Fate.

I am done, with acting like a submissive b*tch and people bullying me for disagreeing with them. AKA; being real.

Nobody will change my traits, my principles or letting me break my word as I see myself as a man. Kids can enjoy the playground, I rather work than 'roast' play. I rather make money than provoke others.

I rather be a solo wolf than in the wrong pack. Your pack starts to be infected by toxic wolves. Even though I consider you a strong Wolf. Take care of your pack.

Just one tip for you, in life, not just HF. Do not let any 'leader' with ego or anger issues become your leader.

This time it went well. It's "only HF". But if Cooligan was your partner in a business and he'd fire people for literally saying in a casual conversation that he likes to drink... you got a major red-flag right there.

I will not expect any chances, nor do I care enough about any coloured-Username to be talked down to like a dog.

Not by sales thrashers, not by noobs, not by leaders (Cooligan) and especially not by group owners (Scrub. Although I admit my respect increased a little for Scrub after admitting I left, and not was kicked).

Again, my respect to you stands. I just do not care anymore about the HF politics and the internet gangsters behind screens acting big and bullying others for sharing their thoughts. Or for keeping their principles. Or even for disagreeing with a statement for that matter.

FATE was an esoteric place. It's turning into another roast/disrespect group of kids. Watch out with that.

I'd hate to see you lose value as a group, just become some members (or leaders) think they can do it all. Thank you.

P.S.

Too long to read? Summarised in 1 sentence;

Watch out with your group members or leaders, if you do not know their addictions, attitude or ego's.

I respect you. But worry about your group. Thank you. Take care.

Stop the off topic posts here. This thread is for recruitment for a group, not offsite petty drama discussion. You have been warned.

Such an awesome userbar, also I respect most of the guys in the group, I'd love to join!

P.S. about the comments above, who even takes LoremIpsum seriously?

ValeriaPanicucci93 - August 14, 2021, 9:15 am

Seems like a High Quality group, would love to join it thanks :D

Been awhile since I joined groups, loved to take part in this one. Been active on HF for a decade now and have been helping people ever since.

Klonopin - September 4, 2021, 4:50 pm

Hey, I'd love to join Fate and contribute to the group

I've been active in the community since 02-26-2020 not that long, but I love to help new people out & meet new friends, im usually chatting in the lounge & programming section, always looking to contribute any way I can.

Not sure if I meet the requirements but its worth a try :^)

Hey there,

I would like to join the FATE community and provide value as part of the crew

I provide free graphics design for aspiring streamers/youtubers that are just starting out.

Such as banner art/overlays/buttons and etc.

NERO - October 5, 2021, 3:35 pm

Thank you for all the applications, Many have been accepted and others i feel need to contribute to HF as a community more before being accepted into another!

In other news! Fate Poker is BACK!!

Aeowulf - October 5, 2021, 8:20 pm

I love that the group entry and requirements are not tied to a buy-in. I just wanted to commend you on that.

Sweet UB. Hope to see the group stick around and do great things!

Mix - October 6, 2021, 3:40 am been in this group for a few weeks now and I must say it's becoming a home!

Envy - October 15, 2021, 12:00 pm

I'd love to be a part of this if you're still accepting applicants.

Long story short...

Indifference of opinion and freedom of speech, speaking blatantly or openly honest is huge for me. I was just recently removed from my group for voicing my opinion on a member leveraging himself into another group using the specific groups names and achievements. After he reached out to me via PM basically raging, he removed me from the group and left me with a "good luck" because I didn't agree with what he was doing.

I made contributions, was active and posted in the subforum lots. It just goes to show doesn't matter how active or how much you contribute something as little as your opinion can get you removed. Spoke to the other leader whom claimed he "wouldn't let it slide" then never took action on it, like a coward.

APPLICATION:

I have helped the gaming community here offering a few threads about how to get cheap games and what not.

I've also released a couple threads with a COD: CW offset list and a Zombies Trainer.

PLEASE NOTE:

The dispute on my account is rectified, he was banned for leaking my method which is why he wasn't refunded. Unfortunately since his thread was never closed I was told it can not be removed.

Thanks for reading!

I have contributed with a few posts to the community, methods etc and I've made quite a few friends on the forum.

From what I've heard this is a good group to be a part of and I'd love to join!
