Preface

Today I'm going to be releasing an automated thread bumping service to the public, and although there are already similar services out, Bumper is intended to be a small part of a much bigger project which I will reveal in the near future.

Why Use Bumper?

Bumper is a low fee service and will always stay that way. The cost per bump is just 1 ¢ (excluding Stanley's rate), with no other hidden fees. The projected spending amount will also be shown before you add any threads. Once you have added a thread, you can still change the frequency and status whenever you want. At the moment there are only basic statistics such as the amount of bytes spent for each thread as well as in total, with many more planned to be added soon.

Conclusion

The project still has a long road ahead as there are still plenty of features I'd like to add, so you'll see the site change rather frequently. I literally worked on this for a few days so please let me know if there are any bugs or feedback that you'd like to provide.

THIS IS A BETA RELEASE; YOU MAY EXPERIENCE ISSUES WHILE USING THIS SERVICE.

Seems promising. Looking forward to see what else you can bring to the table.

CollectingTime - July 6, 2021, 9:29 am

I'm checking this now, hope it works :)

Looks really cool and helpful, I'd want mine to post a sticky anytime my thread gets knocked down to the 3rd or fourth row.

Good coding OP.

Added some more functionality such as notifications (view successful and failed events) and automated check-ins (let me know if this is disallowed).

Looks nice OP, good work.

This has been discussed in <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6150821>

From my understanding it's not against any written rules, so I'm unsure if it is completely disallowed or not.

I would say, go with Xerotic's statement, but you can always try and ask.

Nice contribution for the members looking to bump their threads. Looks good, thanks for taking the time to develop it!

Fudster - July 12, 2021, 12:53 am

Looks like a great project. Good job. Hope I'm sure it will be useful to some people.

biscuit deluxe - July 19, 2021, 12:53 am

Added the ability to specify time ranges for when your thread can be bumped. Useful if you want to prioritize thread visibility for audiences in certain regions/time-zones.

Is the service down, doesn't seem to be working?

It's built using Laravel and Livewire as well as Bootstrap.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
