I have had 4 guys reach out to me on telegram to purchase this service. I had decided that I'll scrape the content of their requested model first, then provide them with screenshot proof that I have scraped it, then they'll pay and I'll give them mega links.

But only 1 out of those 4 actually completed the trade with me. Rest 3 just disappeared after I scraped their order & gave them screenshots.

I clearly discuss with the person what's the deal and every single detail on it. They agree with everything too. Then why it's like this? I've scraped the full content of their model, uploaded to mega too then why they never contact me back?

Nothing against you all beautiful people, but I'm just frustrated
