Thread: This month: Gonna buy a Pistol

Doctor. - July 5, 2021, 9:38 pm

I already have a Concealed Carry Pistol Permit (live in a really southern state lol) so that if I'm around my friends and I have their pistol in my possession, and a cop shows up outta nowhere, then I won't be fked. But anyways, I can't wait to buy my first legal pistol.

Dw, I was trained how to shoot guns by two friends of mine who both first shot their first real gun at the age of 5 or 6 (LOL they a different breed of humans I swear) Definitely looking at all the GLOCK options, maybe a smith & wesson, or a Ruger i dunno. Any suggestions?

I-I - July 5, 2021, 9:42 pm

I got a lil SCCY CPX-2, it's not as nice as a S&M or even a Ruger but it's cheap and gets the job done. Light enough to carry and quiet enough to unload a clip without ear plugs.

AiDenti - July 5, 2021, 9:53 pm

I like the glock 19X 9mm in desert tan. Looking at making that my next purchase.

This is just sad to read, I'm glad I don't live in a country like that...

Why is it sad? Earlier this week I got physically assaulted by a bitch I ran into at a pool, who I haven't spoken a word to in 6 months all because another bitch told her lies and she believed them. Made my nose swollen and back of my head swollen too. You never know what can happen.

So you're going to get a gun so you can intimidate or threat ratchet women you mess around with?

I know, that is the problem. Normal people feel the need to get weapons to protect themselves because other idiots can get a gun in (pretty much) any store in the US. Why can't we have piece in a western country, it's not possible, but having the legal ability to buy a gun is not the right mindset and only leads to more violence.

Btw. better a swollen head than a bullet... just saying

Only reasonable advice is to surround yourself with nice people and (obv) not buying a gun...

Guns might not be safe, but I'd rather have freedom than safety.

Glad guns arent allowed in my country at all, imo a recepy for:

Suicide by cop

people being their own judges (he pushed me so i shot him)

Incidents with them guns (ie lil kids grabbin em)

nope not missing it at all.

I want to get my carry permit as well, I just have not got around to it. Good idea!

Not trying to troll but you couldn't just put her ass to sleep?

neightworks. - July 6, 2021, 9:23 am

CZ P01 is the best carry gun on the planet.

bk randy - July 6, 2021, 9:43 am

Right on man! That's good news, look into a Smith n Wesson M&P Shield .380 they're small enough to fit in very comfortably in the "coin pocket" of jeans.

I just looked up and saw the new M&P 9 2.0 that just came out, it looks really nice.

They're very reliable & accurate guns. So are Glocks I just never owned one myself.

If she did that because she believed lies, then she DEFINITELY would've told police that i hit her first. Ofc I could've put her in the hospital. No man has picked a fight with me in 5+ years cuz they KNOW i'm crazy and about that action.

Can't go wrong with a Glock 19. I think having at least one glock is a good idea, they're so reliable.

I'm a big H&K fan but unfortunately all their weapons cost so much money, would love to get a VP9 Tactical. I've also had my eyes on an H&K MR556A1 for my next rifle... again, very pricey when I can build one myself for much cheaper.

So out of curiosity, how would you carrying a gun have changed the situation? Because you would've just shot her, so she doesnt have a word in the situation?

If you've never held a gun before, then you wouldn't understand. Having a gun on your body makes you grounded. You think differently, you move differently, and just overall a different person because you realize how much power you possess and how big the consequences are.

No, i wouldn't have shot her.

So with that exact logic what would have happened had the girl he is speaking about had a weapon and he had no way to defend himself? Better luck next time or "too bad , shouldve been around better people"?

would you put your hands on someone/harass someone you know is carrying a gun?

What other possible reason would you need a gun for in that situation with that woman?

I typically don't go around harassing people or putting my hands on people? I don't put myself in situations where I would feel the need to carry a gun for my protection.

I own guns, for fun, to shoot targets and to hunt occasionally for fun. I have never felt the need to carry a gun for my protection though, even when I lived in one of the worst areas around.

That's the crazy part to me, that carrying an object makes someone feel so much differently, albeit a deadly object.

Just because you're carrying a gun, doesn't make you untouchable.

When I shoot, I blow up balloons the size of a human head and string them on tree branches.

If I EVER have to pull out my pistol, or any gun, in self defense purposes, I'm aiming for the HEAD. Fk center body mass. Head shot only is what I was taught.

It's sad, we can't carry or purchase a gun, unless we are politician or be a big profile human.

I was looking into getting a Ruger LC9s Pro

I have like 5 felonies in the state of Virginia, there is no possible way for me to get a firearm..

Although, I have had this problem lately that my friend carries. He wants to carry like all the time. I was under the impression that I cant be in the same area as a firearm. Some say you can keep it a lockbox somewhere in the car and still have it. As long as I don't have the key.

Do you know anything about that? I am sure you did your research getting the permit, so I thought I would ask.

Bro a convicted felon found in possession of any firearm = 10 year federal sentence

I understand that, I've been a felon my whole adult life. I am just wondering if you are a felon and you are with someone that has a right to carry in their possession can the felon get popped if pulled over?

From I recall from hearing about rappers with felonies, I remember somewhere that they can't be around others with guns (unless they are paid security guards) even if they're legally carrying and there's been cases where just because they were around a person armed, their probation could be revoked. So I would definitely definitely check bro
