User is trying to sell "shitcoin" pumping and pretty much blabbering about non-sense and ignoring you after you paid.

In the end he tells you, he can help create your own shitcoin or invest in his project, pretty much trying to milk you for more, all of his customers have also had a feeling that he is scamming.

Proof of him admitting he doesn't care about scam report after not offering support.

It's really how unfortunate vouches are getting now and days, I could tell from the very start of this method that is was trying to milk his own clients "us" to offer him more money.

Everyone really need to watch out for new accounts and do your due diligence in reviewing methods or at least giving them a while, or at least make some type of new rule for L33Ts to post in the premium section. He is most likely a multi.

He claims in his thread: " It's not gambling".

If I'm not mistaken, he is just mentoring/advising on which shit coins to invest in? Sounds like gambling.

He gives you a list of public shitcoin telegram for "pre-sales" to buy in and he says that you can invest in him and his friend's private project which requires you to give him more money.

sorry to see this. Very unfortunate situation.. anything crypto related that guarantees 500% profit is just shooting for the stars.

It could've been worst if I was naive to believe me investing in his private project would gurantee more profits, thats where it started smelling fishy! I can't believe none of his customers came forth.

the second I seen a screenshot of vouches I immediately felt as though something was up. Even with his past sales thread he created scarcity through claiming theres only TWO COPIES, then proceeds to copy and paste a new sales thread offering the same thing, WITH THE SAME VOUCH COPIES????? that itself is a scam. Unfortunate.

Sorry about that mate, any mentorships/ebooks related to crypto I never trust. I would love to see what some of the people who previously gave him vouches have to say Debugger biscuit deluxe Durandal

Did you guys receive a similar "money method"?

biscuit deluxe - July 22, 2021, 5:00 pm

I've tried editing my post but couldn't as it was locked. I have the exact same experience with OP. He can have a long conversation with you up until the payment gets sent then goes MIA for many hours at a time.

ForBobo - July 22, 2021, 5:24 pm big yikes with this one lol. This is why i make sure to stay away from those get rich quick threads - they're always scams like this.

I was going to say idk if it's considered a scam, but since he said "not gambling" and this is basically gambling, i definitely would consider it a scam. Sorry for your loss :(

lol - July 22, 2021, 8:42 pm

He's reading this thread as we speak

If only people posting these vouches actually tried out these methods before jumping on the vouch train this shit wouldn't be too common.

Laylo - July 22, 2021, 10:28 pm

So you paid $450 for that shit? Holy shit LMAO.

Did you end up making anywhere near the amount he was claiming for you to be able to earn?

Slash - July 22, 2021, 11:52 pm

I ended up being a douché to invest in this as well :(. The responses were always delayed and little to no information was being given every time I asked a query.

This is not Tenz writing.

This is the person that sold him this account, he never changed the password so I've been keeping tabs on what he's doing. Sad to see what shit he has pulled.

Few things to say,
It was obvious from the get go that this was going to happen, the admins allowed rep for rep and this lad did it ALOT so far so he gained the trust of you victims.

You guys didn't use a middleman, are you fugging crazy? Why didn't you use a mm?

Why are you buying money methods in 2021? What in the actual fugg are you doing?

Guys. You know it's too good to be true...

This is the person that brought the account, he removed all traces of his other discord so I can't find the chat but my word is enough. (I removed him after the sale and I can't find the discord again) the one he's using here is an ult.

<https://cracked.to/Burgalin>

This is him.

I think he also had an n.to account but I can't find anything in my history nor dms.

Final point to touch on, the admins enabled him to do this. Yes you mr/mrs admin reading this you fugging enabled him to do this, you're ultimately to blame. Why is rep for rep not being properly monitored and cleaned?

Until rep is properly regulated scams like this will continue, someone will always have an old account to sell that's just how it goes.

I'm going to reply this to every report

So basically, you sold your account (which is against terms of use) but are blaming admins for allowing rep for rep for a scam?

You sold your HF account knowing someone was just going to use it to scam, but it's somehow not your fault?

Knowing? I didn't know shit, I said I observed what he was doing and essentially saw this coming from a mile away.

My fault? Are you fucking insane?

Yes the admins allow rep for rep... need I say more.

I provided his username on the other forum and I have no other obligation to this piece of shit forum.

You sold an account(supposedly) that someone used to scam hf members(which you said you could see would happen for a mile away) and you're angry? Huh

You sold your account to someone who you knew was going to break the rules (because account buying isn't allowed), and are surprised he broke the rules?

You also knew he was going to scam people but didn't lock him out of the account or anything?

Lowlife.

Glad you've logged out.

This is was utter stupidity, i doubt he sold any account to anyone and was actually the user himself.
