When I first looked at this thread, I was very sceptical. I've never done eWhoring in my life before, 0 prior experience, and saw a few threads around of some people making decent money from it and figured I'd give it a shot. I got in touch with 335i and was still in doubt but I sent the money.

As soon as I sent the money, 335i explained the basics and told me what to do as the first few steps. I was busy on the day I bought the mentorship so the next day I followed the steps and had most of the things set up in around 2-3 hours. I had some issues throughout the setup process but 335i got back to me within minutes and helped me out. He was also down to screenshare too to make sure that I was doing things right.

Once everything was set up, I got to work. I got familiar with the basics and was experimenting around and managed to make $100 in the first day. The next day I made $210. And today I've made $300, so I've broken even and it's only been 3 days. In total I've probably put down 15 hours (including set up), so in my books it's gone great.

From what I've seen so far, this ain't for lazy people, you got to be willing to put the effort in, the more time you put in, the more you get out at the end. Also you have to have some basic social skills. These are the only two requirements, have both and you're sorted.

335i is genuinely a great guy, helps with anything no matter how stupid the question is, doesn't get impatient, and always responds quickly.

Initially I was scared of sending $500 to someone on HF, but if I knew it would produce results like this, I would've happily paid more for this mentorship. This service is a 10/10 for me. Payment method: most cryptos wouldn't it be hard to find somebody willing to exchange paypal? since that would risk their account as well

There are paypal holders & exchangers available, but this was all done through my own account. No holding/exchanging needed.

Its been active for 2.5 yrs with no issues, $200k+ through it.

I remember you were able to mask payments coming in from adult onto normal Shopify websites - will this be taught?

Yes, I can teach that although it's likely something you'll need a webdev to help out with depending on how your LP is setup.

I will be the first to mention that e-whoring on any significant level is extremely time-intensive until you are able to scale chatters/sales reps :)

Thanks for the kind words.

Got my first mentoree, will have him update his progress in the next few days. HMU if anyone has any questions/concerns!

SandBlaze - August 7, 2021, 4:47 pm is this a good thing for an ewhoring newbie to get into? like someone who hasn't ewhored at all? Also does it have anything to do with webcam studios and how much of it can be autopilot like talking to the "Customers" and such? You did mention that to make more than 5k we'd have to treat it like a full time job.

I can definitely mentor you from the basics if needed and provide some resources that will get you familiarized with how it all works. It doesn't specifically have to do with webcam studios, but that's one outlet you could explore if you were interested. There are certain opportunities for automation, but I've found that manually chatting works best. And yes, the most time consuming part is the talking/chatting.

Thanks for the questions.

oh no thank you for answering. I also see model management in the OP so would that mean we'd find models to do the talking for us or do we talk to them ourselves under the guise of being the actual models/girls?

You could use your model to chat, yes but you'll be putting a lot of trust in them and they will likely ask for a higher %. I would recommend chatting yourself.

Akep - August 10, 2021, 3:37 pm

I've been in the eWhoring scene for over 2 years now, even bought your previous eBook on real model management, so I can't rank myself as a newbie. However, I've been on and off my game, right now I'm coming back after good months of break and things have changed frankly. I'm looking for a method to generate loads of traffic, HQ SE methods, later on transiting into a real Webcam Studio and OnlyFans agency. Is this something covered in your mentorship? Alongside with all the legal terms/payment methods. I don't need someone to teach me the basic fundamentals, I need someone to mentor me towards the next level. Will I get use of this?

One more thing. If you left the eWhore scene quite some years ago, what's your credibility that you can learn others how to profit in 2021? Don't get me wrong, I'm not questioning you, I don't doubt your methods, you are not a random name on the forum, I'm just wondering how you kept up with all of this when things are changing every few months.

Hey, thanks for the interest man. I'm confident I could mentor you across all those bases, yes. As for your second question pertaining to my "credibility" in ew, there are few very minute details that change with time; things like traffic methods/setups. The overarching concept of adult businesses, SE methods, management practices, etc. are still very consistent with those that I had been previously practicing. Speaking to the specific details that DO change, I've taken some time recently to research the ew scene on my own and found new methods that are working currently.

Will PM you my discord if you'd like to chat further.

Your creativity is appreciated, but no that's not involved.

Obtaining/managing a model is only part of the method, but to be frank its very difficult to secure a model when you're just starting out.

Once you have mastered ewhoring as a whole and have earnings to show a potential model it becomes much more feasible. Even then, it has nothing to do with meeting up and/or having sex with anyone.

So much the better haha, the creativity goes to someone else on the forum who sells this technique for half a minimum wage (worst scam I've seen)

Hello,do you teach only [BRAND NAME REMOVED] traffic, or maybe several methods? I don't really like meetups,so I would prefer typical traffic for premium.

And second thing. What is the minimum initial investment? I have only 400$ to invest. At first I would like to see that I will actually start making money before investing the 250-500.

I don't know much about E-Whoring, but for mentorship alone you could charge much more.

I mean $350 is nice, but some members paid me up to $450 (discounted pack). Good luck with sales!

I don't foresee this not working anytime soon.

There will always be girls interested in working as long as you're willing to provide reasonable compensation. New traffic methods come around weekly, and even old "saturated" methods like [BRAND NAME REMOVED] are still working great and still quite profitable.

Thanks for the interest, let me know if you'd like to purchase.

Review:

When I first looked at this thread, I was very sceptical. I've never done eWhoring in my life before, 0 prior experience, and saw a few threads around of some people making decent money from it and figured I'd give it a shot. I got in touch with 335i and was still in doubt but I sent the money.

As soon as I sent the money, 335i explained the basics and told me what to do as the first few steps. I was busy on the day I bought the mentorship so the next day I followed the steps and had most of the things set up in around 2-3 hours. I had some issues throughout the setup process but 335i got back to me within minutes and helped me out. He was also down to screenshare too to make sure that I was doing things right.

Once everything was set up, I got to work. I got familiar with the basics and was experimenting around and managed to make $100 in the first day. The next day I made $210. And today I've made $300, so I've broken even and it's only been 3 days. In total I've probably put down 15 hours (including set up), so in my books it's gone great.

From what I've seen so far, this ain't for lazy people, you got to be willing to put the effort in, the more time you put in, the more you get out at the end. Also you have to have some basic social skills. These are the only two requirements, have both and you're sorted.

335i is genuinely a great guy, helps with anything no matter how stupid the question is, doesn't get impatient, and always responds quickly.

Initially I was scared of sending $500 to someone on HF, but if I knew it would produce results like this, I would've happily paid more for this mentorship. This service is a 10/10 for me.

Edit: Just made another $150, bringing today's earnings to $450

I was busy on the day I bought the mentorship so the next day I followed the steps and had most of the things set up in around 2-3 hours. I had some issues throughout the setup process but 335i got back to me within minutes and helped me out. He was also down to screenshare too to make sure that I was doing things right.

Once everything was set up, I got to work. I got familiar with the basics and was experimenting around and managed to make $100 in the first day. The next day I made $210. And today I've made $300, so I've broken even and it's only been 3 days. In total I've probably put down 15 hours (including set up), so in my books it's gone great.

From what I've seen so far, this ain't for lazy people, you got to be willing to put the effort in, the more time you put in, the more you get out at the end. Also you have to have some basic social skills. These are the only two requirements, have both and you're sorted.

335i is genuinely a great guy, helps with anything no matter how stupid the question is, doesn't get impatient, and always responds quickly.

Initially I was scared of sending $500 to someone on HF, but if I knew it would produce results like this, I would've happily paid more for this mentorship. This service is a 10/10 for me.

Edit: Just made another $150, bringing today's earnings to $450
Congrats on your success! What was the $150 for?

How are we supposed to demonstrate that we demonstrated reasonable effort to be eligible for the refund?

I'd require at least 30-40 hours of dedicated effort towards the mentorship before refunding. I'm not asking for you to log hours, it'll be pretty clear to me if you are putting in the work as I'll be able to see clear progress.

It's just to protect me from people that get the mentorship, don't put any effort towards it & waste my time then try to refund.

That's fair enough, thanks for the clarification :)

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
