Thread: Looking for a partner with programming skills

True Detective - July 30, 2021, 12:48 pm

Hello.

I am looking for a partner that has programming skills.
Not just looking for someone able to do a little bit of front-end designing.

It's a requirement that you have a skillset when it comes to PHP and MySQL.
The project will be paying off, there's no doubt about it, and you won't doubt it when you know what it is about.

Willing to throw you a small upfront payment, if I deem you trustable and you have some portfolio you can show off.

Shoot me a PM or reply to the thread.
