Thread: Looking for anime streaming network?

longerestcat - July 30, 2021, 4:06 pm

Anyone suggest the best anime streaming network that is available/ I am having netflix but that is all... any other that is best?

Artisan - July 31, 2021, 4:44 am

Crunchyroll is the best imho. I use 9anime and darkanime since theyre free streaming sites.

I use "fire anime" app on my smart TV, insanely fast, every anime including exclusives, no ads, free and has multiple source options. It also has "latest anime" and "browse all anime" to find genre specific anime.

There's a Russian copy of Kiss that's still alive which I visit very frequently to watch anime, just make the domain name end with .si animixplay is the site I mainly use easy to navigate and not bombarded by a plethora of ads.

animetake is the one I use mostly. Practically no ads at all when surfing around, and usually the first player has no ads aswell.

I used to fuck with crunchyroll but then realized the amount of censorship on it so I stopped using it.

Just use crunchy roll , Ive liked it so far

Lyrlei - August 3, 2021, 1:10 am

I'd use Crunchyroll if it didn't block so many animes here. lol.

I use Mavanimes because it's french (vostfr) and they have a good grid in the last out order.

9anime is probably the best free streaming site. I get like one popup when using it on my PC.

When I use it on microsoft edge on my Xbox when I want to watch on my TV, I get 0 ads and autoplay works amazing as well. The only annoying part is using the cursor instead of having buttons for everything as it is web-based.

Admironi - October 22, 2021, 1:54 pm

Crunchyroll if you want to pay, but gogoanime has it all

Ziggy Pøp - November 30, 2021, 1:52 pm

animixplay is really good. Has a lot of different cast options and formats.

Melv663 - December 13, 2021, 11:05 pm

I use gogoanime and animixplay, they're pretty good.

Y'all sleeping on animepahe. Best site I've watched anime on. 1080p even for older animes from 2009/10. Ads are non-existent

Beherit - December 14, 2021, 11:20 am

Funimation has surprised me in the last two years with the types of anime they have been licensing.

zubabb - December 16, 2021, 3:07 am

Palaski6 - December 27, 2021, 3:57 pm
