I do not recommend this service, there is no better way to waste your money.

The discord servers are secure so it is very difficult to have a cost effective service. For my part, I tried the service. On 10k dm only 50 joined. The seller told me my money back but it has been going on for 2 weeks, I am still waiting. The service lasts since 05-24-2021.

I would also add that it is very hard to have an exchange of messages with this person. I doubt this person is being honest.

Sorry for your loss. In the future, it would be best to use middleman for such deals or pay upon completion.

Hope this gets resolved soon.

I got the seller the minute I opened the dispute ...

He said he was going to pay me back, we'll see that.

This is the risk of doing business on a forum .. but nobody from the board takes note;)

Please dont close the dispute before he gives you a full refund. Once a dispute is closed, it cannot be reopened.

People do take note mate. Disputes show up in red in a members profile. If someone decides to deal with a member despite that, then that is on them.

If I understand correctly, can this person also scammed us?

Chances are very high that he made an exit scam. He will possibly contact you saying he was sick or some excuse like that and ask for more time. If he does so, do not believe such words and ask for a full refund.

Disputed member has 2 other disputes for the same service and both have the same pattern.

I think that's what he's asking of me -_-

This is the life ^^

he talks to me about August 2. to be continued

OliverSc - July 31, 2021, 10:54 am

He should refund you I guess.

Edit: Just saw his disputes, I highly doubt he'll refund you, sorry for your loss.

MrSpecter - August 2, 2021, 12:23 pm

Yeah,

still no news when he said on august 2 seems like the ground for a mass scam as he has already had 2 disputes before you and op you should have used a middleman since no one on this forum can be trusted aside from that it also seems the way the seller replies to the disputes is always asking for more time so it is a reasonable ground to suspect a exit scam

alas if he does contact you asking for more time request a full refund immediately and do not close the dispute before getting your refund

i hope you get this resolved

Hello. First of all, client need to read contract carefully. It's clearly mentioned that if any user is not accepting dm, I will not be responsible for it. Inspite of that, I offered client my service for second time. But still, there was no joining for him. I never took guarantee for any joining. He wants a refund since there was very less joining to his server. This is not fair.

Doesn't matter, if you said you would refund him (like the OP stated that you said), then you're now obligated to refund him.

You also ignored this thread for over a week which doesn't make this look good in your favor.

If you were determined to refund him, you would have done it right away. He insulted you for offering a refund and then shying away from it. I would have done the same thing. You can't tell someone you're going to give them money, then not give them money, then expect them not to get upset.

Why didn't you refund him when he asked for it?

Of course he asked for your service for the 3rd time, you said you wouldn't refund so he's trying to get his money's worth in your services since he knows you aren't giving him any money back.

Because he wanted a refund as well as wanted me to develop a bot for him. Also he was not ready to settle money for the same.

He said to refund, then to deliver and then he will pay again.

Then just refund him, don't do another service for him, and don't accept any more money from him?

Literally all you have to do to resolve this is give him his money back. You wouldn't of even had to do that but you said you would refund him, now you're obligated to. Even if you don't like a client, give them what they want so they gtfo and leave you alone so you don't have to deal with them

No. I am not gonna do this. I was offering refund as I also felt bad that there was way less join then usual to his server. But he choose to insult me and my service. I am not bounded to refund for a service that I already did.

Respect for you @Angela White@ but can't do this.

You're a known scammer. Stop wasting time with retarded excuses as to why you won't refund someone.

End it all honestly.

There is no excuse. Can you give any 1 logical reason to refund?

MrSpecter - August 9, 2021, 10:29 pm

you asked me to wait, it's been over 3 weeks and still no results. Whether for service or reimbursement.

the last delivery should be made on August 2. You do not love me ? don't worry, it's the same for me. Apparently I'm not the only one to have opened a dispute with you within this timeframe. there is really a problem with your quality. The nickname scammer sounds good to you.

Ok but out of thousands of DMs sent, barely 50 arrived it seems to me that the service is not a good service ... this is my opinion...
