I have stated in my thread that i will provide 3month mentorship, I dont want escrow to hold that much money for 3 months. Also the first profit you will see when you have 5k daily traffic which can take from few weeks to months, and sometimes if you are careless with your website you wont earn anything, But if you are dedicated and wants to make the fortune, surely it will take time and effort but i assure you that it can make you millionaire in few months , It will be easy for you because you will have my experience with you. So No to ESCROW. I can provide 10% off to first buyer.

Do you have special traffic source? Anything other than SEO, parasite SEO, or PPC?

Where are videos sourced from, how is uploading, and what's your knowledge with offshore hosting?

I owned webhosting company in past, I will provide you some sources where you can buy some good hosting for your website. The rest i can tel you in the mentorship only, But i can assure you that once website i built then videos will be automated. You will have to work on SEO and other stuff which i will guide you. I have other traffic sources, as i have mentioned in my thread that you will get 300-500 Visitors daily after setting up the website. I have my other friends also in adult business so i can get you some free links from them. It have nothing to do with PPC.

Can I ask about the "Strictly no refund" policy?

That pretty much contradicts your "Support will be provided on priority basis and if i fail to provide support for 5 days, I will fully refund you." policy, doesn't it?

Genuinely asking as a fellow business man / mentor service provider. I do not do anything related to adult content, no worries about me being competition. I just wonder how to understand your (no) refund policies.

I am providing mentoring and giving my time/effort for 3 months, I wont be providing refund for some lame buyers who learns everything from his guru and later ditch his guru from where they learned there skills.

Also i will be providing support on high priority, But this is life bro, Strange things can happen as i am human, i can get busy for 4-5 days. So its better to provide refund to customer so they do not panic. But No refunds will be provided to those who get the full mentoring. I will edit my thread as there is some confusion with refund policy.

I understand your perception, but it just looks weird as Rule #1. Check out my thread, it's pretty clean.

Yet, what do I do? I talk to my clients upfront, tell them how I do refunds and put all of the terms inside a Contract.

No confusing content, no complaining members and already $1300 in sales in 2-3 days.

I'll wait for your thread to be up to date. If you like me to remove these posts, just PM me and I'll do so.

I'm struggling to see how this is worth mentoring about, isn't it just downloading/uploading video's and changing the description?
