I enjoyed it, it got a bit bleh in season 3,4 and 5. All the good violence was season 1/2

I really like this show. I think season 6 should be good as well.

Defo a good binge when you got some time to kill, enjoyed it in general, didn't seem too drawn out like some other series (e.g. the walking dead or prison break where they could have stopped at season 1 and done fine lmfao). Probably gonna re-watch it when I get more time so I am re-caught up for next season.
