Can you provide an example of what a review might say?

It's custom to what the person wants and any stars.

Fi?is - August 15, 2021, 11:46 pm

your price is very cheap, are you sure it's legit reviews ? because bad ones can ban a business from google

I'm doubtful that this is true, if that was the case people would be using this method to ban innocent businesses from Google and I've yet to see any evidence of that.

Good luck with selling OP, I may very well be using this soon.

Lol anyways anyways bro. I will pass on the free review as I don't have a business set up on google yet, but seems like a very good service as I stated above for anyone who just started a business, or even someone who has a good running business

. That way customers who view your website/business see you have a 5 star rating :)

Good luck with this man. Great service

One thing I know for sure is that your service reflects your behavior: unprofessional.

Notice to potentials clients : a low quality google review can ban your business from google.

If people sell it for 30$/review, there is a reason. (you are warned)

Sounds to me like you think just because you pay more money for something it's better. He can charge you more money if you want? I'm pretty sure he stayed these are live accounts giving reviews. Not fake.

You have zero evidence to back this up, you're simply sales trashing.
