Thread: Some Angry Child Decided to Trick me and Ran off... HF version of WWYD

iTrade - August 16, 2021, 1:41 pm

Was on mobile so I didn't look into the users acc much, someone initiated a contract w/ my exchange service

9$ crypto for 5k bytes, I accepted offer sent him my address and he gave me -B rating and Instantly VC banned himself lol.

I don't dispute this contract as nothing was ever sent? Or do I dispute it since he marked it complete though it is not?

Wonderful start to my day :)

Oh yeah, user created acc who must be upset at me for some reason on HF made a fresh acc and did that typo in poll: Leave contract "cancelled" on my part.

L1l DuRk - August 16, 2021, 1:46 pm

Dispute it since you did not complete the trade in my opinion .

hayesh - August 16, 2021, 1:53 pm

I dont know if hf staff gets into disputes but next time dont do business with brand new accounts they may be vengeful people.there definitely should be a minimum amount of activity on an account before they are allowed to leave B rating

Yeah i learned that the hard way, will for sure do in future.

Aznar - August 16, 2021, 4:04 pm

Dispute it and have his b rating removed. Since I don't frequent the site if I ever use the market I rely on B ratings. Even one is too many, especially if it was recently.

blxcklist - August 16, 2021, 4:09 pm

Yeah just get the b rating removed, why have 1 negative when you can stay clean?

account_ - August 16, 2021, 4:21 pm

Weird first time seeing that no username on a b rating or a contract, multi account?

Invalid user.

Edit contract system abuse.

Nuworld - August 16, 2021, 4:43 pm

Sounds like something Forensic would do.
Just contact Staff. "Contract abuse"

In my personal experience doing trades with non-upgraded accounts never works out.

LeetSpeed - August 16, 2021, 10:47 pm someone is hating on you hard, damn. Get that rating removed.

??? - August 16, 2021, 11:01 pm

Fine i'll send you back your $9...

In all seriousness who scams for $9. It's honestly crazy what kids on here do. I really wonder who the user is, no one who's new to the forum knows what bytes are. So I completely believe it's a pre existing user on here. If you want i'll refund your $9 for you i know how feels to have a bad day, a little late to the party don't think it was resolved but contact me if you want to follow through on that offer.

According to the Help Docs:

Quote:I have a negative b-rating that I think is false/unfair. Who do I contact?
Nobody. We do not review the b-ratings.

I've heard that V3ndors get their disputes/negative b-ratings removed if they contact Omniscient, is that true?

Yes and no. Only reason where Omniscient invalidates the deal dispute and removes negative b-ratings is when if there has been abuse of the contract system. Typical scenario is when a person opens multiple accounts and disputes every single contract that was started by that account using vendor contract templates. Keep in mind that it's the most frequent abuse scenario but not the only one.

A member who gave me a negative b-rating and/or opened a deal dispute against me is now banned/closed. Can I have my negative b-rating and/or deal dispute removed?

No, unless you're a V3ndor and there has been contract system abuse.

As you're not a V3ndor, chances are slim it's going to get removed. Really sucks for you man, you had a nice and clean record.
