hahaha, this is so freakin weird. But hey they're getting some work out done so... meh let 'em be. Burn burn those calories,

Looks like a great way to pop a knee, twist an ankle, or screw up your hips. Full power indeed.

Imagine your wife (GF or sister or whatever) coming home drunk late at night, trying to jump your ass like that..

All bad jokes aside, I do respect the calories-burning activity in general. It just looks odd.

Honestly, I would for a laugh with only friends.

It'd be hilarious and hella tiring - then kick it with a beer and steak after.

are they really not on some substance?

ailo - September 6, 2021, 4:10 am

I must say, i am impressed, this takes a lot of inner body core strength to achieve.

Michael - September 6, 2021, 4:22 am

That's actually a very intensive workout.

Strange to see though.
