What does becoming Vendor have to do with selling your crew.

Can be vendor and own a crew/group.

I was wondering the same thing but then just figured he would use the money from the crew to upgrade.

Because I only bought the crew to use the userbar but would like to use the vendor userbar Instead.

Instead.

Keep in mind that you can always switch back and forth and wear the Wealthy userbar while having the V3ndor green color username enabled.

But if you only want to wear the V3ndor userbar then I get that I suppose.

It is a nice userbar lol.

plus owning a crew makes you a more reputable member if your exchanging.... GLWS though just my thought

It's okay i plan to buy the cartel crew in the future, I don't like only having 10 spots. I only really bought it because I had a surplus of bytes from gambling and didnt want to lose them all. but right now in need of BTC to complete some orders so selling a few of my things.

I would tend to agree with this too as whoever owns the Crew has something that's of a decent amount of actual onsite value, so less of a chance that they would want to jeopardize their Crew and/or potential sale of it down the line. Though at the same time I've seen crazier shit happen lol.

All in all, just use a damn MM at the end of the day and you'll be much safer.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

GLWS, I was personally able to sell my syndicate for 300 as well, some people might try to get you to get lower, but they are still worth quite a bit.

Looks like he got a little over $1k so I don't think he cared about a crew he probably got for $95
