How is watchparty? When I think of it, it reminds me of the old days on Xbox360 the netflix partys! Do you upload the video onto the site to all watch, or do they have a rental catalog ?

Basically I upload it to the website and start the stream. There is a chatbox on the side so people can talk amongst eachother and watch the movie at the same time. But yes, it's kinda like Netflix parties

4 Days late to the party ? This is something that I'd really like to participate in can you let me know when you're thinking of doing another one and also the time zone as I'm in Europe

Thanks the Duke

Maybe try a different day or time zone?

I'll try to make it to one if it's on Sat / Sunday and I'm free.

Cool idea :)
