best crypter in this forum

alexvenutelli7 - September 15, 2021, 2:47 am

Hello, I am interested, how often do you refud ?

lululululu - September 15, 2021, 2:25 pm

IMPORTANT!

The Stub of this Crypter is not native,
as it comes across with promises like:
"written in C++/Asm x86".

The Stub is Managed and has .NET dependency's.

Definitely stay away from this. I lost my money. The crypter itself doesnt load. He told me I have to pay 100 dollars for a private stub if I want to run it in a VM. He crypted the file once for me since I wasn't going to give him 100 more. The startup didnt work. I asked him to crypt again. Now hes just reading my messages and ignoring me. STAY AWAY.

Thank you for this message I am diffidently running away. I ask him for vouch and he refused then I smell foul play????

I stated that it does not work on the Virtual Machine, I asked for your AnyDesk to help, but you did not allow me to help you, our external customers have no complaints, do not disparte anyone in vain

The thread here does not state it does not work in VM. After I buy it I told him it doesn't work and showed him screenshots of the error. He plays dumb and keeps asking for AnyDesk access. I'm like No you don't need that I already gave you a screenshot of the error. Then 15 minutes later he said It doesn't work in VM for security purposes. So why does he even ask for AnyDesk in the first place.... Afterwards he says pay 100 dollars to make it work in VM and buy a private stub. Now he just reads my messages and doesn't respond. So beware.

Crypter took advantage of our service for free for 2 days and eventually made threats that it would make bad reviews on Hackforums and said that my Crypter was fake for 2 years and then it's very strange that he said it was fake I don't understand this guy who doesn't have that kind of complaint from so many customers but a guy who benefits for free says there are mistakes

Now I've deleted our telegram messages but I've taken a screenshot

Don't give this guy anything while he's trying to get free benefits from other vendors.

This crypter have over 101 bugs still need alot of works for it to work.

Everyday you need download MS2015 for it to open its complete shit dont waste your money buying it.

Dont bypass WD dont even work on windows7

I don't understand a post like this. Why would a seller need to post what it doesn't include in order for people to understand? Have you ever seen an apple commercial saying it doesn't have windows on it? A bit exaggerated but learn the lesson for the next time and ask before purchasing if you don't know. Don't just assume shit.

On topic:

I paid for it. OP delivered with pretty good speed and was patient with my situation. Crypter is worth the amount it costs. Can't say it's worse then any other crypter for a similar price.

This dude is a scammer, stay away from him.

He use a public stub that gets detected and can't bypass Windows Defender. I also asked for a refund since none of his software features works but he refused to refund me.

I can provide all screenshots of our conversation, if interested just DM me. Ban this guy and stay away from him.

He also deleted our conversation but i got screenshots lol
