Every single girl has asked me a question about it, its a real conversation starter ha ha.

I've personally only added girls I personally know and quick added tons in my state.

This account could be a gold mine for any use, its a real charm.

If you have any offers, shoot them my way, I by any means don't need the funds but am open to outsource this account after good memories.

Why would you buy upfront when you have more positive b-ratings and you're 3 years a member?

Stop being retarded and paying upfront when you're more trustworthy. That's how you get scammed.

Always use a MM
