Thread: PALM-READING by a licensed doctor - Learn about your health from just your hand

murt - September 30, 2021, 12:53 pm

Greetings guys!

I present you something that is unique and rather unusual.

Get information about your past and current health from a specialized doctor.

What is reflexology

Reflexology is a pressure technique applied to reflex points on the feet, corresponding to all parts, organs and systems of the body, with hands and fingers. Every targeted stimulus made from the foot transdermally primarily affects the central nervous system and then the brain directly, so that the relevant organ or region in the brain is controlled. The synaptic connections between neurons become richer and more complex and reach a level that will do their job better. With this method, the body's self-healing mechanism is activated and a physiological relaxation is provided in the body.

Example: If you have redness in the both exterior portion of your hands that means you have high estrogen level as estrogen increases blood flow and main cause of this is actually liver failure.

Example 2: If you have a single palm line in center of your hand, this is only seen in Down syndrome

Example 3: If you have red painful spots near your fingertips that is a known sign used to diagnose heart infection

The list goes on. You can view more about this inside the hand-map I included at top of this thread!

Now you can schedule an appointment at a specialized doctor and he will probably charge you between 100-400$ depending on where you live.

We will only charge 20$ and you will receive an answer within 1-24h.

What you will get:

- Detailed video from a Physiology, psychophysiology, neurophysiology and reflexology specialized licensed doctor.
- Opportunity to learn about health problems before occurring e.g diagnosis,
- Screen yourself about potential health outcomes
- Obvious health problems you had during your lifetime

Price and requirements:

- $20 BTC

- Clear picture of your right hand palm

- We will send you a video explaining the natural lines on your hand and what they mean about your health.

I will provide 2 vouch copies

Of course! Open a contract and send me a clear picture of the palm of your right hand!

murt was kind enough to provide me with a free vouch copy in exchange for a review.

The deal itself was easy and pretty straightforward. I provided him with pictures of my palms and that was it. His thread states that delivery is from 1-24hours and he delivered within that time frame. Communication was easy and quick, he was fast on replies and updated me with how the process will go.

The palm-reading was straightforward which I always like. No additional, useless text, just his professional opinion. It contained 8 paragraphs and 170 words. Most of what he wrote was advice on what should I check out with my doctor, what are my 'strong' sides and my current conditions which were correct. There is really nothing more to say about the service, I strongly believe he knows what he's talking about and if you want a fun and useful way to spend your $20, I say go for it.

Thank you murt for this! Good luck with sales.

This has to be one of the most unusual things I have seen on the Premier Seller Section.

Nevertheless GLWS.
