Thread: My Lotteries page

I noticed there isn't a button to see only your active lotteries.

I think it would be a great feature to have, as I'm often clicking a few pages to find them.

My Previous Lotteries would also be cool to have.

are you suggesting a page of lotteries for everyone , correct me if i am wrong.

We can all see our own lotteries on a separate page from the main lottery page.

ok but is the feature worth the chance only the dev can say that.

I like this idea. Would definitely be valuable for those of us who constantly have new eggs to auction.

Are you spamming for the new octoberfest award?

It's crystal clear what the OP is asking for...

i think feature makes more pages and more work and i think it is upto the dev to make the call and i am moving out from here . peace out.

I like this idea. I usually just ALT + F and type my name to find my lotteries.
