"A pet peeve, pet aversion, or pet hate is a minor annoyance that an individual finds particularly irritating to them, to a greater degree than would be expected based on the experience of others."

What's something minor and annoying that you guys hate?

I'll start off with mine: People who go AFK in the middle of a deal. Like seriously, we're in the middle of a transaction and you want to go AFK? Come on brother! The worst type are the ones who go AFK after you've sent money or provided the service/item...

A pet peeve of mine is people who drive below the speed limit. It drives me crazy.

Yes exactly, especially when there is no one front of them, it's a single lane and they're driving 10 under. Makes me go crazy every time. When I notice it's an old person I just take a deep breath but that's the only exception.

Lmaooo and if you pass them they're waving their hands and shit like !?!?!?!?

Prettykitty - October 11, 2021, 12:54 pm

Pet peeve... hmm people who lack empathy and doesn't care about other people really grind my gears.

Hah exactly my man, too fugging true. Even if it's a no passing zone I'll still pass them if I can. I'm a pretty calm driver and don't speed too much but if I'm forced to go 25 in a 40 then we have a problem. The only time I'll be passing people left and right is when I'm on a long road trip.

Literally had a person do that in front of me the other day. I definitely started cussing loudly in my car...

That's a good one and gets under my skin as well. Sometimes I get self-conscious when I'm the only one eating and I'm eating something loud and crunchy lol but I do my best to refrain from showing everyone in the vicinity the food in my mouth.

A huge pet peeve of mine is when I say something to someone and then they say "what?" And then I have to repeat myself all over again.

One of mine is people who eat with their mouths open and act like it's okay to be smacking their gums while chewing their food. It drives me insane. Someone told me it's called misophonia and the symptoms definitely add up lol

Oh that's a huge one for my wife. Our old roommate would do that and it would drive her off the wall. I don't mind it so much, but she would go crazy listening to it.

Almonds - October 11, 2021, 2:56 pm

People who are inconsiderate of others in public spaces, they will stand in the way and block others.

And.. those people who don't keep their kids in check! It is sometimes understandable, other times you can tell they don't give a shit.

I can't stand when members dick ride and then stab you in the back because you do t give them attention. In real life though I can't stand people who smack gum or there food. Just the other day my wife was talking to someone on the phone and she was eating out meal and literally just trying to talk and eat at the same time. (That shit makes me cringe) lol but it's a rare thing she does.

Yin Yang - October 11, 2021, 3:24 pm

People who chew loudly like a cow

TB12 - October 11, 2021, 3:25 pm

For some reason if it's a person smacking their lips while eating I can't stand it, but I could listen to the sound of dogs slurping food or lapping up water all day.

A pet peeve of mine, is people blocking way and not moving when I ask them to make room for me to pass.

Lindros - October 12, 2021, 2:37 am

Yup, mine is basically how people drive, there should be a death penalty if you ask me, we need to dilute bad drivers.

I also hate assholes who park in my parking spot and go "oh, I didn't know it was a private spot", dude give me a fucking break, it's literally on my property with no parking near it, just admit you were an asshole and thought you won't get caught

Sayid - October 31, 2021, 11:36 pm

Fools eating with their mouths open, on occasion it can be okay, like if you're just answering a quick question, but if you're full-blown attempting to hold a conversation while shoving food down your gullet, you deserve to be castrated.

I disabled the last one who did that in Chicago, IL.

I haven't had a problem with that since, surprisingly... I guess word gets around when someone of Stephan Hawking's level is operating a vehicle and has other special knowledge.

PS: Don't buy into that bogus stuff about 'tough guys' living in Chicago, IL... There's probably 1 for every 500,000 people that actually live there.

Just a persona to scare people. I think it's silly.

Now, people from New York? OH, YEAH. That's not a joke and a stereotype. Those people are jerks.

I don't even think this is limited to discussions, if you're eating in a room with other people in it the very least you can do is not smack your lips as you're eating.

New Pet Peeve: Loud slurping sound when eating soups/broths.

Sometimes I feel like ripping my ears straight off.
