Yeah, they started allowing this after the rep reset. It felt wrong making this thread, but it is allowed(unless they've changed their mind on it again).

No. If I were giving like steam keys or something and requesting pop in return? Yes. I don't believe it applies here as there are several others doing this actively as well.

Omni is fairly quick, and if not him a mentor or staff member would have shut this down already.

Appreciate you taking the time to make sure this is allowed though! No worries, we should be fine unless rules are changed.

Alright, was just wondering, because I have never seen a thread like that before. I mean I've seen lots of QL 4 QL threads, but never seen any of those asking for +pop as well. They just seemed to come out of nowhere within the past 48 hours, but maybe that's just me.
