Thread: Garry's Mod

Allelujah - October 16, 2021, 5:18 pm

Does anyone or has anyone played this?

Looking for people interested in DarkRP and Prop Hunt. That's what I'm looking to play.

I miss the PERP days of Gmod.

Never played PERP, if that's a game type.

Last time I played it, it was super toxic lol.
Not sure how it is now, haven't played in about 3 - 4 years.

If you do, hope you get good activity on it.
Not sure how people grow their garry's mod servers.

yeah I just don't know anything about gmod tbh

we'll see about it

I could never get into DarkRP because I didn't have friends that could teach me the ropes. I use to play tons of Death Run, Prison Break, and TTT though

Could give it a go for a month and see what happens, I can imagine the game is still poppin with activity.

Not crazy active, but it's still alive from the looks. like 7000 players on DarkRP

Sounds alright, don't think it will ever die completely since there isn't really anything else like it.

It would be worth it to start your own server if you decide to play.

I've been considering it. I'm addicted to gambling so I want to add gambling into a server
