Thread: [\[Hustlers\] General Recruitment - Apply today to become a Hustlers group member!](#)

[$(5)$] - October 17, 2021, 1:30 pm

APPLICATIONS FOR HUSTLERS ARE NOW CLOSED. KEEP CHECKING BACK.

[Hustlers] Official Recruitment Thread owned by Bankrupt

We are opening our doors, and allowing more of the HF community to join us on this journey to Hustle.

In the past, Hustlers had a main focus which was to grow together financially. While this is still a main goal of the group, we have broadened the spectrum of who we are allowing as a member. We have found that variety and differences have made us greater, and we want to continue bringing on more users that may slightly differ in niche/goals, but have the same general mindset of becoming great through any means necessary.

We are looking for the following types of members in new recruits -Active members who positively impact HF as a whole (Lounge heads, Political gurus)

Skilled members who feel they can bring something to the table (Marketing, Investing, Coding, Cracking, Graphics, Gambling, etc)

Avid gamers that want to play games as a Group (WARZONE, Apex, CSGO, OSRS, & more) [Only apply for this one if you'll be open to group play]

While the list above doesn't conclude everything/everyone we're looking for, it's a general basis of who we're seeking at this time. (You may see changes/updates to this in the future)

As a recruited member into the group, there will be requirements for you to remain a member of the group. The requirements will include weekly check-ins in the subforum, and random site/Discord activity checks to make sure you're positively and actively representing Hustlers as a group. Keep in mind, we reserve the right to add/remove any recruited users at anytime.

If you feel you would be a good candidate to join Hustlers after reading through everything, please use the application format below and reply to this thread.

Code ? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here. Applications are being accepted until: Indefinitely- no end date currently assigned. We will accept/reach out to applicants as we see fit.

As always, we appreciate the HF community very much, and wish good luck to those who choose to apply during this round of recruitment.

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I am an active member on HF, and I'd say I am an avid gamer (tf2, cod, tarkov). Furthermore, I am very skilled at winning [$(5)$]'s ruby egg lottos (lol not really).

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

I am pretty active, online most days and I try to post every day.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

Having an experienced developer and affiliate marketer in your group could prove to be useful. Personally, I would like to meet some new people; joining a group would allow me to do this.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

I am in no other groups. I would be able to dedicate a good portion of time to being an active member of Hustlers.

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

I will be available to help with any programming & marketing projects/questions for members within this group. Languages: C++, C#, VB.NET, Python, HTML / JS / CSS (Learning Autolt & Delphi)

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I'd like to think I'm all of the above. Some of my skills are but not limited to:

Web Design: HTML, CSS, JS and applications like MyBB, Wordpress, IPB

Graphic Design: Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, Dimension

Video Design: Premiere, After Effects, CS6, C4D

Entrepreneurial: eCommerce, Drop Shipping, Social Media

Marketing/Other: CPA, Ad & Traffic Targeting, Branding, Crypto

I do a moderate amount of PC gaming, coming from consoles it's what I prefer and have used for a while:

New World

COD: Warzone

League of Legends

Apex Legends

Diablo II

Others

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

Very active. I pop in several times throughout the day, occasionally stay on or leave it in the background while I work or game. I am a lot more active when I am part of a group and feel like I belong somewhere within the board, without one I feel like a straggler.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I feel as if I'd be a good addition to Hustlers for a few reasons, notably:I'm a self-made, hardworking and dedicated individual always looking to improve

Variety of skillsets, ability to help or provide assistance with most projects

Professional business attitude when appropriate, casual laidback otherwise

I work well with others and thrive in groups of likeminded people

Active, "high quality" poster always looking to contribute in any way

I enjoy helping others, teaching and collaborating

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so) I have not yet had the chance to contribute to HackForums in a way that's notable, or notorious. HackForums has been around for so long I feel as if I've almost missed my calling when it comes to major forum contributions. I released a passive income guide which reached 100 replies and over 1000 views, which would be one of my most notable threads aside from this thread I created in regards to PheonixMiner being compromised as a PSA to miners, as well as a backstory on it's origin and creator. I'm actively looking to contribute, and aspire to make some meaningful contributions to the board.

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

I am currently only part of one group, was more at one point but most of them were dying or not good fits. My time and dedication is up for grabs!

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

Nothing other than, thank you for your consideration. Looking forward to a new chapter as a Hustler. Good luck with the group either way!

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

Yes, I am active member who visits daily and gaming is one of my favourite hobbies.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

Very active.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I feel like I should be accepted as a member of the group for a multitude of reasons. I am a friendly member who is always willing to help out others, and I also enjoy meeting new people and making new friends. I have some knowledge in all sorts of different areas and I am always willing to learn new things and share my knowledge with others. I also feel like I should be accepted as I am a very active member and I will always ensure I stay a loyal and active member.

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I am a highly active member. Although I am relatively new to the forum, my activity surely foreshadows my future. In terms of activity, I am frequently on the lounge providing my input and advice in a high quality manner. I am also very fond of the games being offered by HF such as the hack game and HUM. Surely the XP and kills I have acquired on these 2 games in such a short period are testament to my early love for the forum and my high level of activity. I am also quite political and have begun to involve myself more in the politics section. I hold a strong set of beliefs, generally conservative. With that being said I am still very open minded and love to hear opposing points of view and engage in intellectual conversations.

As for my skillset, I am very proud of my marketing and coding skills. With regards to marketing I have extensive experience with web-design and web-dev (html, css, basic php, intermediate js, wordpress, woocommerce, shopify, c-panel, and digital ocean just to name a few). Additionally I have several certifications in the marketing field such as google display/search and analytics certifications. My copywriting skills are excellent and I also have plenty of experience with email marketing and social media marketing from previous positions I have worked in. Overall I am a very creative marketer but also understand the critical importance of data driven results. Finally, I think it's important to note my extensive experience with relevant software such as adobe after effects, premier pro, photoshop, excel and powerpoint.

With regards to my coding experience, I have a lot of experience with JavaScript via NodeJS. I have many previous projects that involve website monitors, data scraping, and automated browsing. Additionally, my experience with coding has tied in very well with my marketing career as it allows me to bridge the divide between marketers and developers. As mentioned I am also quite experienced with html and css because of my marketing experience. Always open to learning more as I am infinitely curious with my endeavors.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)
Very active.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I strongly believe that I bring a lot to the table in terms of my skillset and experiences. I am also a very open, social, and friendly member. I am well aware that this is a group filled with high-performers, which is exactly the kind of people I like to surround myself around. Like they say, great minds think alike!

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)
As of right now I am mostly offering advice and guidance for coding related issues. Though I do plan to expand on this!

I am a very active member of the HF community and I'm nothing, but a gamer in most eyes.
I'm almost never not playing a game haha.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)
I'm extremely active on HF.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

Well I'm very active on the Forum and that won't change anytime soon.

I feel like I would be a perfect fit.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)

I might not have as many contributions, but here is one that comes to my mind:

I love you

Cloudy - October 22, 2021, 12:22 am

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

Active again yes, skilled uh not really in the "hacking world" but gaming yeah. I'd say I'm pretty sick at most games. CoD/Val/Fort/ you name it I've been in the high ranks/leaderboards for years trying to go somewhere as a career with it.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

I'd say nowadays somewhat active. I recently came back a few months ago and connected with all the old homies. I had a period of about 4 years where I was gone but outside of that I've been pretty active on HF at one point I had 10k posts pre prune.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I saw gaming and I'm always looking for teammates or friends with similar sweaty tryhard mentality. All I really do is game and stream/watch basketball outside of my side hustles with online selling/flipping/price error stuff.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)

Not anything crazy but I'll list a few it's been a while since I gave away anything or did a tutorial.

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

Yeah I should be able to. I try to stay active in the groups I'm currently in so it shouldn't be a problem especially if there is some gamers in there.

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

I'm mainly a gamer nowadays. I take pride in improving in mainly fps games but I've also played WoW for like 8 years now so I'm not just limited to fps games. I started back on original Xbox and I was addicted to playing Halo 2 with my friends on LAN. Moved on to 360 when it came out got on Xbox Live and Halo 3/CoD4/Mw2 and the rest is History. I've always been a competitive player in any game I pick up. I got into gamebattles for CoD (Mw2, CoD4, Bo2, Mw3, you name it also sports games like madden and nba2k) and pushed to MLG rank 578th with another HF member. I've played and won/placed in countless tournaments across many different games. The dream was to go pro but I never really got my chance or "fame" to. Honestly the dream is still to play an fps at a pro level but I can't seem to stick with one game long enough to get there without losing my sanity or getting burnt out. I try to stream on twitch often but I haven't taken it seriously enough to actually go anywhere with it but I would like to. Normally I just don't feel like streaming unless I have a game to play or people to play/stream with. I tend not to be able to play any fps very long without a teammate or a friend. I pride myself in my aim and mechanics across quite a few games CS/Val/Fort/CoD/Tarkov and even WoW. I've taken a step back recently as there aren't many games to really keep my attention but we have a lot coming up with Halo Infinite, CoD, Battlefield, Forza, and a few more, on top of that I've had a really rough time with my girlfriend and I's relationship lately so I haven't been on the grind as much but that will change with all of the releases coming. If you do have some gamers in there, I feel like I would fit right in. Anything else you want to know or any questions don't hesitate to ask.

Thanks,

-Cloudy

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I would say I am pretty active on HF, although there is days, where I post more and days where I post less. But even when I don't post that much on a day, I browse the forums quite frequently.

In addition to that I have a variety of skills that the group could benefit from. I know various program languages, Python, C#, PHP, C/C++, to name a few.

I'm also into Cyber Security, have worked as a Pentester, thus I know a lot about hacking. Something that I also happen to be good at is Server setup and management.

Other than that, I also know some stuff about social media marketing, had an account with 120k+ in 2013/2014, which was quite a lot at the time. I have also worked with Instagram bots quite a lot.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

I would say somewhere between very active and somewhat active, depends on what's going on irl and if I'm working on a project. But most of the time I am very active, as I just love hanging out on HF.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

Groups are one of the greatest things HF has to offer in my opinion. I love making new friends and contributing to the groups I am in. That would be no different, if I was in Hustler's.

Also I am always looking for people to work on cool projects with that we can all earn some money from. Hustlers seems like the right group for that. As I mentioned above, I have several skills that I could make us of, in order to contribute to group projects and/or help other members out.

To sum things up: I think that I would be an asset to the group, because I am active, dedicated and have a variety of skills that would be beneficial for Hustlers.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)

I have written several, small Tutorials in the Hacking Tutorials section:

I am also working on a really large thread about server hardening at the moment, called "the server hardening bible".

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

Of course! I spend a lot of my time talking to fellow group members and contributing. But some groups are less active than others, thus I surely have more than enough time left to contribute to another group, even though I am in a lot of groups already.

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

Hustlers seems like an amazing group and I would love to be a member, make sure to contribute and help keep the group active. Also I am always down for group projects, which will either help us learn a lot of new stuff and/or make us some money.

Thanks in advance for reviewing my application!

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I'm all the above, I have over 3k combined posts in gaming. Also overall being very active on HF. I'm a really experienced Call of Duty, CSGO, and WoW veteran. Currently ranked top 34 in my current realm in WoW and that's out of around 12k people. Same with being ranked on numerous previous call of duty titles excluding the more recent ones

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

very active, sometimes I just don't post on some days, but I'm usually always online

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

Feel like this would be an awesome experience to meet some new people, and some old faces. Plus I like groups as it's a closer knit community compared to the overall HF. I can bring in useful knowledge in many forums, and provide comic relief nothing recent, but in my more active years I had posts for the WoW community, as well a general guide for MW3. As well as probably around 5 giveaways in the past .

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)

Sorry I can't link them there pretty old, you'll just have to take it as face value <3

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

Yes

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

I've lead gaming groups in the past, as well as just a dedicated gamer so I feel like I would be a perfect fit for this group.

Thank you for your time , and looking forward for a response

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

Active member; typically lurking and active on discords.

Avid gamer. I dabble in Mass Effect, SWGOH, KOTOR, Just Cause, Runescape, WoW, Starcraft, GMod, CS:GO.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

I'm relatively active, I love lurking at the moment. I was on here a long time ago and deactivated my account when I was a freshman in high school, now that I am in my last year of uni I think that being active on here again is warranted. I'm always on here checking out new threads.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I believe I can offer unique political and economic perspectives to the group, as a double major in International Political Economy and Political Philosophy I can promote and incite exciting discussions and add valuable insights.

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

I am currently in Hersey, I have time to contribute to other groups as well and it will not be a problem at all.

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

I would love to bring a different perspective to the group. It would be exciting to bring a new level of discourse and interest to Hustlers.

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

Very active, jack of many trades, that games as wife and kids allow.

? How active are you on HackForums usually?

Very active. Maybe too much so.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I've been a hustler my whole life. When I graduated from high school (which was a miracle in and of itself due to some medical and other issues growing up), I was living in a shed. Without power. No heat, no A/C, no running water. Now 15 years later I've worked my way to a half a mill net worth. Doesn't sound like much, but true net worth for my age range, that puts me in the top 4%. I achieved it through hustling my way through every job I've ever had, grinding and networking for better positions and pay every time. I have created my luck and forced my falls upwards every moment of my life. If that doesn't exemplify hustling, I don't know what does.

Always trying to keep conversation going, especially contributions where I can outside of the Lounge. Check my threads.

I've only done small giveaways, on top of random Convo rains and individual gifts:

I am active in the Rewards and Small Favors forum trying to help other members where I can.

Always looking to help others out where I can.

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

Yes

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

Stay motivated. Keep hustling. Good luck y'all!

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I'm both an active member and an avid gamer. I haven't really dived into any specific skillset during my time on HackForums. My hacking knowledge is limited. I'm incredibly active, checking HackForums multiple times a day. I game heavily on PC and PS5, playing a lot of CSGO, LoL, FIFA, NBA 2K, F1 and Valorant. I consider myself pretty skilled in the games I play, having been Master in LoL, FaceIT level 10 in CSGO and Immortal in Valorant.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)

Very active. I was away from the website for a couple of years, however I've recently returned and am spending a lot of time here once again.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I'm incredibly active and chill, as already described. I'm looking to spend a lot of my time in a group on HackForums, making mates and helping the group prosper and grow. I'll be in the group lounge and sub-forum every day, conversing with fellow members.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)

I don't have any links or threads, however I've made several donation contributions to HackForums in the past, which you can see from my awards list. In addition to that, I was a member of the Writ3rs team as a Wiki member a few years back. If you view my post history, you can see threads and posts in the Wiki and Writ3rs sub-forums for proof of this.

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

I'm only a member of one other group, which I was only invited to as part of their public recruitment since the group is being sold I believe. I haven't bothered venturing out into any groups until this.

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

Thanks for hearing me out, hopefully I can prove myself a worthy addition to the group.

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I am active 5 days in a week, for several hours a day.

Worked in many businesses in real life and have been trying to online as well for a while, i made some money, reselling some stuff and tried getting into affiliate marketing and those kind of stuff. :D I made few hundreds with stocks and crypto trading in the past, but i stopped.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)
Very Active

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I would like to bring positive vibes, and a good atmosphere and vibe, so when whenever people see me they get happy and energized haha. :D, i could also talk to people get to know them, if theres any personal stuff going on i could possibly help, coming with tips or suggestions.

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I'm Skilled Software Engineer Member, love programming and minecraft in my daily life. Little bit tired because no interesting project from my clients.... So that is why i'm applying to the group, hopeful some interesting projects. I work on my personal SAAS projects they are great only sold hem 2 years ago.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active) Mostly active, busy to get more active. And about 1 month and few days from now applying to be ub3r :)

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I'm like no sleeper... sleep around 5 hours a night. And most time online. So, like to have good friends and a good group to talk like 24/7, and Christmas is soon :) hope we can share some gifts.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)
Not so... just a love sharing thread...

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

I'm not in another group, only playing at the PinkCraft Minecraft server...

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.
I love the name Hustlers! Hope the gas price is no to high to join :)

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I'm a very active member, I'm online multiple hours a day most days

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)
Very active

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I feel as though I'd be a great addition to the group. I'm super friendly and sociable, and would love to meet some new people. I love learning new skills and I definitely call myself a hustler.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)
Not at the moment, but I hope to change that when I can provide a contribution of adequate quality

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

I'm not in any other groups, so I would devote time to Hustlers solely

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here.

I'm a new user but I plan to be as active as I can on the site. I love hackforums from what I've seen and I feel as though being in a community of likeminded individuals would make my experience on hackforums even better Feel free to start a convo with any other questions or comments you have!

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer?

I've recently become very active on HF. I have limited experience in gambling. I am an avid and fairly skilled gamer, I am LVL 10 on FacelT, Diamond 1 in League (going for master in S12), was one of the first 100 people to ever hit max level on MapleStory EU. Quick learner in new games with similar mechanics.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active)
Very active

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group?

I'd devote a lot of time to the group as this would be my first group ever. I'm very active on HF compared to most other members. I'm hungry for knowledge and I'm a fast learner.

I would love to be part of a group whose main focus is making money. I hope that I can learn more about how to make money and contribute to the team in every way I possibly can! I've always wanted to become part of team that has a common goal. I tend to be able to do a lot more and not give up at the first setback when working in a group with like-minded people with a shared goal which I'm sure I'd be able to eventually contribute to.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so) none

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers?

Yes

? Are you an Active member, Skilled member, or Avid gamer? Yes, I have experience in these titles.

? How active are you on HackForums usually? (Very active, somewhat active, not very active) Daily activity.

? Why do you feel that you should be accepted as a member of the group? I have been hustling ever since I had TTD.

? Do you have any notable contributions to HackForums, recent or past? (Please link threads, if so)
Yes I do contribute notably to HackForums.

? If you are in other groups, will you be able to dedicate time to being an active member of Hustlers? Yes I Am a strict time keeper.

? If there is anything else you feel you would like to include, please do so here. I am active. I would like more like minded people to communicate with to spread my wings across the forum.
