Hello mate, is it possible for me to obtain a vouch copy? I am into the sneaker reselling game!

Yes, clothing and sneakers have really recently especially turned into a business for many. In many ways too, which I teach in the small pdf course you get with purchasing. Also chatting.

3 days is enough, and all the sites that are scraped are all legit, you often see popular sites.

Most likely will if more people don't ask with better profiles, but since you are already into the reselling game you could give a better review so I'm sure you will get one. Will be in contact w/u.

I'm available for a vouch copy! I can write later a review based on 3 EU countries

Elaborate on those, could get you the vouch. You don't have the greatest rating, but you might still get one, if so I will be in contact! Also, the tool works basically anywhere, but some countries are harder, but there is a way even if you are in North Korea to make money with this, I tell how in the info .pdf you receive and it's still going to make you profit. Just need to invest more time and a little bit of money.

If somebody wants to know if it works well in their country/there are problems, you can private me. But 99% of them work basically, so no need to worry.

Sales/vouchers are accepted in -2-3 days, from what I see now. Trying to maximize the program's way of basically making more money & finding sites, and adding more some simple options, maybe.

THE FIRST 3 WHO PURCHASE ANY LICENSE, WILL RECEIVE 50%-OFF., You can reverse your space (have to buy the license), but I'm only doing this for 3 people and no more, because of limited licenses. Every 3 usernames are written here. Cap is between 25-40 licenses at a time. But it is preferred for you to be reputable on this forum because you have to write a review and proof & pictures of you getting some deals. Even people who are not l33t upgraded can get it if they promise me to leave (honest of course) with their opinion on pricing, effectiveness, and how it has worked for them. And pictures of their findings, even one is enough. I will all the reviews to my site and to here.

Also I might add a feature inside the program or either doing it manually, anyone purchasing using your custom code (mentioning it to me), you will get somewhere from 5-15% of their license purchase money sent to your wallet.

Hi. I'd like to have a vouch copy please. I have been looking into sneaker reselling for a couple of weeks now and I've been hitting some road bumps. I think, I think this is it.

I have everything ready in order to start trying your method (from the general knowledge, to a starting capital in order to buy the items, to proxies, people and sites where to sell them, where to ship the bought items if they're available in US etc.).

I've been a member for a long time, haven't exactly engaged a lot to receive reputation, but if there's any left - I'd like the vouch copy. I'll be leaving the review and paying full lifetime price if made that amount of money within the month.

Thank you.

Thank you. You don't have the best profile, but good of you having the knowledge. Proxies are not needed but could help make you more cash.

Will still keep you in mind when delivering vouch copies. Remember first 3 copies bought are 50%-OFF in exchange for a review, more info a little bit up there in the post.

I really don't, but thank you for keeping me in mind nevertheless. Looking forward to hearing from you. Good luck with your sales!

Thanks for that. Will contact you if the voucher goes to you, after all, I'm trying to prove to people and give it out to at least 5 people so people know and believe it's the real deal right here. No need to be into the reselling game to get this working, you can learn everything and I teach basics and a little above in a small .pdf course you receive with the program. Many many ways on where to sell, how to get extra money for your items, what items are best to look for, and just some sites that will help you on the journey. Added is chat support of mine and I try to help you as best as I can, wanna see clients of mine win and get some cash, even people I give vouch copy to. I will not surrender if an obstacle comes our way, we will keep going. Most likely you won't need my help even! The tool is easy to use, and the course covers how to use it correctly & the best way to. Simple stuff, it's just written in case!

So far; nobody has bought a 50%-OFF copy. So still 3 available. At least 50% has to be paid in advance to reserve your space, and the rest when the program is ready when license buys are officially open and vouchers are given. Not a long time anymore! This is a huge discount, doing this to get 3 reviews. Any license. Debating on if I should add a trial version for those skeptical. Deciding tomorrow. Everyone who buys with a discount is required to leave out a review in this thread! No requirements, other than at least 1 picture of your deals you got and opinion on the tool, and if you want couple words about the course.

SIM-5093782 - October 24, 2021, 6:04 am

Still, vouchers are available.

1 spot is taken from the 3 discounted 50%-OFF ones.

So what you have to do is (it's already 50% off, any license), you pay 50% upfront or all, it's up to you to reserve your spot so it's guaranteed. Rest is paid when the program is ready and will be running out vouchers to people and accepting license sales.

I will private you here or Discord since we are in the same group.

Ever Flow - October 24, 2021, 7:17 pm

Will you also include where you're reselling the stuff you're scrapping?

I would do a review and still buy the discount if the program is ready.

I would do a review and still buy the discount if the program is ready. Yes, have to make the thread clearer since people ask questions that are already listed. That's my bad.

But yes, you get a small .pdf course, on where to sell, many different ways, how to get extra money from your selling, and explaining all the options in the tool what they do but they are self-explanatory, but those are still there if you are confused but its really user-friendly program.

Only one scape left for -50%OFF review, better be quick if you want one.

SIM-5093782 - October 26, 2021, 5:39 am

Long post. Wrote a little bit of this to a customer, decided to post it and add extra stuff because people ask these question's a lot.

LICENSE SALES = opening later today in the evening, or bad-case scenario tomorrow morning ish, still need to do minor fixes. This time of course vouchers are given and I will pick them today.

Prices will rise after I have like 2-3 reviews (a bit, and after more reviews=a bit). It's hard to not profit from this tool unless you are really.. stupid. But even if you are, I will help you. And 100% refunded in the crypto amount you sent if you haven't profited more than the license cost. I am really confident in my product. You can't also lie because from ur license # I can see all scrapings/deals. And I won't lie either, if you do not end up profiting you ask me for a refund, I will provide.

I lose nothing because then another spot will open and I want to have good feedbacks/people satisfied. Only 20-25 licenses are active, and that's important, every single user using affects it, some of them not always using the tool. I could have 50/more, and it would still scrape a lot of sites and find deals, obviously not as much. Would not be as good as it's now, and I won't change the limit cap, never. Might make it 5-10 bigger, depending on how 20 people affect the tool.

3-day trial will leave once 20 licenses are reached. I'm not selfish, just creating something wasteful to your money or time. Not from me, I offer a similar refund on cheats too, but 50% just because it's cheating. But some providers are not that confident in playing with their own money. Kinda treating everything of mine like a stock, having possibilities to recover the lost investment. That's Ghosen.

Also how the eBay feature works, it's only working w/ clothes. Trying to use any other category, no work. It works the same way as a scraper, and as configurable almost (in options: eBay: change the seller's country, shipping, showcase feedback/trust, show bids which still is a little buggy, search all or filter, size(s) And more. I will constantly improve it and fix minor bugs that occur.

Your machine that you are using/internet will have an effect on how fast you scrape, but it also depends on the scale you are trying to search. But even a $100 laptop works fine, might just wait some minutes longer to generate the .txt. Only bugs currently: it might crash (semi-often) if you try to do a really large search, and working to fix that/reduce and should be by Tuesday, Wednesday is the absolute deadline for the tool to work perfectly, and some minor things need to be done.

Every license buyer, will have a small .pdf course link to go with my tool. To save time from me, and to help you. The program is easy-to-use and options are easy, but every action on the tool is explained there, but the main thing I made it is to showcase every way I know, to sell your items. And I have 5yr business background, 4yr marketing/eCommerce, and that really helps.

I just bought for 1 month. I'll come back here to do a review when I'll be able to test the software. If everything works well, I think it can be quite profitable, to see if in my country it will work...
We'll see !

I have already picked people who are going to vouch, scraper was supposed to be done and delivered yesterday but I had so much going on and faced bugs that needed to be fixed. Working on it as we speak, couple hours and the tool is ready and I am going to be selling licenses and sending the vouchers.

And everyone who is hesitant, just wait for the vouch copies.

I had problems with licenses not working, the scraper is now ready. I am ready to accept license orders and vouchers are being sent.
