Thread: 410+ posts today and two HOT threads!

zFacetious - October 24, 2021, 9:16 pm

After being sick on and off I was finally able to get a day where I felt great and decide to take a crack at my Lounge Head as well as the October aware, about four hours into the day I was sent a PM that I was at the top for posts for the day and that one of my threads was the most replied to for the day, I was able to knock out 412 posts as of this thread and have two separate threads bounce back and forth between the most replied to thread today. What are the most surreal places to visit? as well as How's everyone feeling?

I hit my lounge head and my October Pumpkin award today as well as two special little things under my name for HFX support <3

Congratulations on the lounge head award, thats a lot of posting for just one day.

shitmaster - October 25, 2021, 7:27 am

I don't think I can do that much without having HQ enough posts. Maybe I should try. YOLO.

Wow, have to say that's real dedication right there. Congrats on your new awards ?

That's a lot of achievement in one month! Nice job!

I am at 50% for the lounge head. I'm not even trying, I failed my attempts too many times. At least, I'm getting the October award :)

I also had three threads in lounge which were pretty active :)

Definitely awesome to see the community being so active :D

Inspirational work, as I need to get that pumpkin and I'm a ways off yet!

Holy god darn shiiiiit man thats crazy!!! I love it! Congrats my man! I'm sorry to hear you were sick but I'm glad to hear that you're feeling better and now probably even better after having accomplished both those awards and then some in just TODAY alone!!! I'm literally on 98% for my ? so i got maybe a COUPLE posts left to go until i finally get it! And i think I'm just barely hitting 60% for my Loungehead award, so i know thats going to take me some time but i know i can't slack to much since its based off of my last 30-days posts and I'm sure as each day goes by the total # of my posts towards that award will continually decrease with each passing day! So i really gotta make the most of each and every day!

But once again, congrats bro! You definitely killed that shit! ? ? ?

Wow this is insane, I think I have like 150+ posts today and about 20 or so more to go for that pumpkin award.
