Hello newly admitted fella, twire , welcome to HackForums.

Be sure to read up on the Help Docs to ensure yourself from breaking any rules to avoid being warned/limited/banned for breaking them. For example, this section is for Introductions only, and if you're looking for anything specific you should really check out the other sections and try to find the correct one related to what you're seeking.

You can always use the Search function to look for anything specific you're looking for if you can't manage to find the proper section you require.

Anyways, best of luck with your new journey here with us! Hope to see you around! Cheers! ? ?
