Thread: Free Bytes Just Cuz

Joe - October 27, 2021, 4:38 pm

I'm feeling generous. It's a chronic condition of mine that I'm going to ask my doctor about.

The first 20 people to give someone on HF a compliment get 100 bytes.

Have a nice day, thanks, bye.

Neither did you, so who gets the bytes that you don't get from him?

:-P

I was waiting for this response, I will donate my 100 bytes to the newest member who gives a compliment.

I do, my memory is shot thus far.

Joe - October 27, 2021, 6:52 pm

Does no one want my bytes or is it just that difficult to give someone a compliment?

I would love to have your bytes but it is hard to give someone a compliment when I don't know them BUT judging from your threads/post, you have good taste in movie selections and definitely have a sense of humor. Also seeing as how you purchased bytes and your initial thought was to do giveaways, that leads me to believe you're a thoughtful individual. If you're like this on a internet forum, you must be a really nice person outside the internet.

How hard was that?

Giggity.

Firstly people who host a contest are one of the kind and generous one, like you. So thanks for hosting such a giveaway for the community.

Who doesn't love free bytes !

Send some my way Mr Generous Joe.
