isai - October 30, 2021, 3:40 pm

currently my favorite is the Reign brand because of the variety of different flavors + no sugar. Orange dreamsickle tastes so damn good.

Do you like energy drinks? If so what kinds?

Yeah every now and then, used to drink G Fuel and I love the odd Red Bull or Monster.

I don't drink them often at all though.

Love Reign and Bang, just tried the Birthday Cake Bang and it's my new go to. Prefer 0 calorie 0 sugar energy drinks and it slaps, so.

Eran - October 30, 2021, 3:56 pm

From time to time, yeah. I know it's not healthy but I like the taste and I drink like once per week, which I don't think does much, if any, harm.

I used to drink energy drinks everyday, sometimes a few of them on top of my morning coffee. Monster energy was my favorite in my teens and early 20s. I would always have one of those black and green cans next to me.

Nowadays I don't drink energy drinks as much to help cut my daily caffeine intake down. If I do get an energy drink it's usually just one of those small sugar-free Red Bulls.

I saw their line of alcohol in a shop the other day, looked interesting. Can't say I've tried Bang energy as Reign is just sooo good to me. The Rock also has his own line of energy drinks

Oh I've seen that they have the coconut, blueberry, apple and cranberry alongside the sugar free and regular. They don't offer them in the larger cans though.?

I used to binge on energy drinks when I was younger, eventually coming to the point of feeling "twacked" off of them(not a pleasant experience), and now do my best to avoid them. Although I will have the occasional urge to challenge Satan's wrath and purchase one, but that thought ultimately vanishes quicker than a dad stepping out to "buy a pack of cigarettes".

Pardot - November 7, 2021, 8:37 pm

I enjoy blue v, its the best energy drink tbh
