Thread: Anime Studio/Manga Artist in Japan

shirothahacker - November 1, 2021, 8:58 am

Hey, i am doing a research on a project and i would like to talk with an actual manga artist or part of an anime production studio, it is really important.

Best thing to do would be try and contact an anime studio or lookup any known artists that have social media accounts.

I think you will have better luck finding someone on MyAnimeList and other anime/manga related sites or do what Mafty said. Good luck.

Good luck in your endeavor. Like the above post says, MyAnimeList or going through directly to the studio's contacts.

I live in Japan and there is some manga studios in my area but I highly doubt any of them speak English so it might be difficult unless you speak Japanese
