Thread: Jeff Bezos appears in Amazon training video

A Powerade - November 4, 2021, 1:13 am

So I got hired by an Amazon DSP recently and they had me take training from Amazon. In their example of a good uniform, it shows a ridiculous photo of Jeff Bezos on a badge and it made me laugh pretty hard. Hope you guys get the same laugh out of it that I did.

Damn it good to be rich, I will be on amazon tutorial very soon too. jk

Yeah, Elon did it, maybe he doesn't care enough.

Well, some people just accept the way they are. Nothing weird about that.

Exactly what Procyon said, some people just don't give a shit and accept the changes their body is going thru,

I was recently asked if I go bald if I'd get a transplant and I immediately said no, it's just hair, I don't mind it one bit ;)

That's crazy haha, are you delivering packages for them or working in a warehouse?

NurSpec - November 4, 2021, 5:35 pm

Hope you don't get caught showing this stuff haha.

Fair enough bro, that's alright then.

Nate - November 4, 2021, 11:09 pm

??that's hilarious, I mean why wouldn't he be in the training video tho!!

Mafty Navue Erin - November 4, 2021, 11:44 pm

He looks like a normal man in that picture. No baldness. No weird eye thing. No suspicion of being a super villain.

First of all, congrats on the new job!

Secondly, I swear I saw an old video of Jeff when he first started Amazon and he looked like that. Man might be one the wealthiest but at the cost of all his hair it looks like.

What about your working environment? I heard a lot of bad stories from Amazon's ex-employees

So far it isn't that bad. I have to take lunches in the van and it is hard work, but there hasn't been any big red flags so far.

Maybe that is why he is no longer smiling, the baldness XD

Like I wouldn't know how to explain myself how the man is still bald with all the billions he has, a hair transplant doesn't even cost that much. It's like, you can't afford to be bald when you're that fugging rich lmao.

Some people dig the skinhead look, man.

Sure, but they'd have to somehow connect my online identity to my irl one. I keep that, at least publicly, pretty reasonably separated so I think they'd have a hard time with that.

I've seen clips of him in a Frontline documentary. It's what he really looked like. Looks like the fucker even saves money on paying for stock photos.

I personally wouldn't have thought twice about it, and I certainly wouldn't have posted it on surface web.

That's why the king is so rich I guess
