Thanks!

littlemay - November 4, 2021, 10:08 pm

is this trading bot from MQL5 and everyone can buy it?

Bl3nd - November 4, 2021, 11:29 pm

No. You can buy it online but full price is 400$ for limited time. When my friend raise price on his website i will too.

I use that EA for prop firms like ftmo or any other prop firm and i use it on my own acc too.

eSp0rt - November 5, 2021, 2:03 am

Is not for free. This EA is not mine but from my friend. He gave me permission to sell it here.
This EA is updated every month and is licensed so you cant find it for free.

If that EA wasnt tested i would not use it on my account. That EA gave me 3 funded account on FTMO platform..

Profits from prop firm i transwer to my own trading acc and trade myself and with EA when i dont have time to trade.

I dont rush nobody to buy that EA. I just want that HF community know about that EA and they can get it for 50% off. When my friend raise price i will too. Full price is now 400$, i sell it for 200$.

Before that EA robot i spend a lot of my money for ftmo challanges and try a lot paid EA and all of them just burn my acc. That EA i got now changed my life.

I know EA is not for long time run but on big acc with min. risk is ok to make 5% per month. I like this EA because they update EA every month.

My goal is to have four 200k funded acc and that is all. This is 800k.. 5% profit per month on 800k acc is enough for me.. That 5% profit on that big account is 40k - 30% fee for prop firm =28k per month.

If someone have any question just DM me. Here or on discord.

I will be trying to get ftmo account soon (next week or after).
Let me try it, & I will say here if it is worth it or not.

I still waiting for 2 vouch copy to be posted here.

JuiceBoxCereal - November 10, 2021, 6:11 am

There's really no reason for you to not have an fxbook posted

SilentHitman - November 19, 2021, 12:11 am

Hi All,

ThxBI3nd for giving me a vouch copy.
I tried it first on 10K demo account or a week.

Here is myfxbooklink

<https://www.myfxbook.com/portfolio/mt4-890076046/9231324>

I had 5% profit in a week, that means the next week I should have passe FTMO phase 1.

EA seems good, bit overpriced but still good.

Always turn it off at news.

Give yourself time at first, test on Asian,London&NY session & see performance.

BI3nd - November 25, 2021, 9:29 am

EA is not overpriced.. friend have now bigger price as me here... his full price is now 497$...

I will increase price soon. For now is still 200$.

If you do prop firm with this EA i recommended min 50k account..

My latest prop firm accounts i got...(i already got 5accounts funded.)

Fresco - November 25, 2021, 7:00 pm

Will be back looking for more vouches.

GL

BI3nd - November 29, 2021, 3:48 am

If you passed the challenge, you would know you're required 10% and then 5%. All the users are asking for a Myfxbook... I'm sure if you provided this, you would receive a lot more sales than responses. I saw you provide plenty of pictures as well, but what about a video of the EA doing its job?

BrandonBoyd - November 29, 2021, 7:18 pm

Don't get me wrong there's another safer bot to pass FTMO challenge, also posting screenshots of demo account doesn't help a lot, what helps would be an investor account to watch the bot performance, remember it's not the same trading over a trend period and during a ranging market periods, yet it's good to have options to let people know new products and decide the investment, I believe if you have money and you're going for a 5% per month better go for crypto bots can tell you at least two that should give you around 10-12% monthly of your deposit, anyway good luck with sales!

Bl3nd - December 7, 2021, 4:33 pm

Last week I got new funded account. Will share myfxbook tomorrow for funded 50k account.
